Need for Added Accommodation Stressed By School Board

Dr. Wilkinson Surprises P-TA

The annual School Meeting for the Squamish School District was held at the school on Sat. Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Eric Stathers was appointed chairman with Mrs. Ross Barr acting as secretary.

Mr. Stathers read a very full report from the School Board giving an account of the money spent and the work accomplished during the school year of 1947-48.

A recommendation was made to the School Board asking them to take note of the crowded conditions at the Squamish School and to make plans to erect a high school building to alleviate this situation. The purchase of a house to be rented to a high school teacher was also advised.

Mrs. McRae reported that the School Board was fully aware of the local situation. At the present, they were awaiting the completion of the road to Britannia, after which 15 high school pupils from Britannia might attend Squamish High School instead of going up to Britannia Mines. At present, plans for school buildings had been sent for by the Board.

Mrs. A. McRae was unanimously re-elected as local member of the East Howe Sound School Board.

as to favor tobacco chewing, although no mention was made of the effect of the tobacco on the stomach. Fortunately very few men were present at the meeting.

Dr. Wilkinson was the guest speaker at the P.T.A. Meeting held in the school on Nov. 10th.

It was decided to write a letter to the School Board asking that a public health nurse for the whole school district be appointed.

On Thursday, Dec. 16th. the school will hold open house and Mr. Hayes extended a hearty invitation to all parents and friends to come to the school and see the children at work. Each room is making a special effort to offer something interesting to the visitors.

The next meeting on Dec. 9th. will be in the form of a Xmas party for members and their friends.

Dr. Wilkinson gave a very interesting talk on children's teeth, with special emphasis on the much discussed fluoride treatments. As a result of lengthy research the Dental Association recently pronounced these treatments to be 40% effective in preventing decay of children's teeth. The dentist surprised his audience by pronouncing himself wholeheartedly in favour of gum chewing, because of the beneficial action of the chewing. In fact, he went so far

Fire at Watson Siding Claims Aged Man's Life

A veteran of World War I, Edmond Peter Harold, aged 70, lost his life in a disastrous fire at Watson Siding, 20 miles north along the P.G.E. Rly. At this point, the Jamieson Construction Co. operates a work train of eight cars. The men employed are engaged in repairing the railway's telephone lines.

As the north bound freight with Engineer Eadie at the throttle approached the siding at approximately 11:45 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 21st, brakeman Sinley McRae noticed the kitchen car on fire. He immediately aroused the sleeping men, while the remainder of the train crew pulled the six cars not yet burning out of the danger zone. Camp workers and train men attacked the fire by means of a fire pump and the engine hose.

According to witnesses the flames appeared hottest in the vicinity of the kitchen stove, but soon spread to the dining car.

Concern for the cook who was missing led to a search of his quarters at the end of the kitchen car. Not finding him there, the men were certain that he must have escaped. Upon inspecting the dining car, which was beginning to burn, Gordon Campbell, fireman, and Robert Stanley, powderman, found the body of the cook Edmond Harold, some distance from the doorway, slumped against the tables. His death was confirmed by George Millward, First Aid man, who supervised the removal of the body.

As the fire-fighting equipment proved inadequate, attention was centred on keeping the fire from spreading. When Constable Malines visited the scene on the following day, he found both cars completely destroyed down to the decking.

Dr. L. C. Kindree presided at the inquest which was held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 23rd. The jury brought in a verdict of death from shock and burns, received accidentally by the cook, with no blame attached to anyone.

The deceased had only been employed at this camp for a week when the tragedy occurred. He is survived by his wife in Vancouver and a brother in England. Funeral services were held in the Chapel of the Mount Pleasant Undertaking Co. on Thursday, Nov. 25th., interment in Returned Soldier's section of Mountain View Cemetery.

Successful Sale Held By Women's Auxiliary

The Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Anglican Church held their annual sale in the Parish Hall on the afternoon of Wednesday, Nov. 17th.

The affair was a success from every angle; even the weather was an asset. For those ladies tired of their own cooking, there was a table of homemade delicacies; those shopping for Christmas gifts found a table laden with beautiful sewing; and there were potted plants for the indoor horticulturist.

Mrs. De Beck's class of little girls had a table all their own, at which they sold candy, knitted doll garments and the recipe for dancing snowballs.

A delightful and refreshing tea gave the shoppers an opportunity to chat with friends.

Mrs. L. Budgell was the lucky winner of the embroidered luncheon cloth.

STANDARD OIL LOCATES HERE

The Squamish Towing Company has acquired the Standard Oil agency for Squamish. This company plans to erect a gas station just south of their quonset building.

Construction of the garage will start early in the New Year. If present plans go through the new station will be in charge of E. Patenaude, well known basketball and softball player from Britannia.

Pioneer PGE Families United by Marriage

A marriage uniting two pioneer railroad families took place in St. Joseph's Catholic Church on Tuesday, Nov. 23rd, when Rev. Father Gallo joined in marriage Patricia Frances McCormack and Raymond Keith Rebagliati. The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. McCormack of Squamish while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rebagliati of Lillooet.

Given in marriage by her father the stately bride wore a full-skirted gown of white satin which featured a cowl neckline. Her floor-length veil of net fell from a beaded coronet. Her only jewelry was a diamond-studded gold cross on a chain, the gift of the groom. Red roses and gardenias made up the bridal bouquet.

The two bridesmaids Miss Teresa Martin and Miss Viola Halvorson wore similar frocks of moire taffeta with fully gathered skirts and cape sleeves. Miss Martin's dress was shell pink while Miss Halvorson's was ice blue. Both wore matching Mary, Queen of Scots headdresses and elbow length mitts. They carried yellow chrysanthemums and pink carnations.

The groom was supported by Mr. Charles Hurley of Lillooet. Mr. Ronald McCormack and Mr. Harry Nichols were ushers.

The nuptial music was played by Mrs. R. Cole. During the signing of the register Mrs. Skarcynski sang "Ave Maria".

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Parish Hall where Rev. Father Gallo proposed the toast to the bride.

Later the bride and groom left by boat on their honeymoon. For travelling the bride wore a green suit with black accessories and black topcoat. Her corsage was of Tallsman roses.

A number of out-of-town guests attended the ceremony. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. McCormack, of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. P. Rebagliati, Mrs. Kenneth Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. R. Williamson, all of Lillooet.

The young couple hope to make their permanent home in Lillooet.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS MAKE SPECIAL PLANS FOR XMAS

The staff of St. John's Anglican Sunday School, and the W.A. are planning to hold a Christmas Party, complete with Christmas tree, games, refreshments, for the enjoyment of the Sunday School pupils.

The Sunday School pupils of the United Church will hold an open service on Sunday, December 19th, at 11 a.m. A special program has been planned for the occasion. Friends and parents are urged to attend.

The electors of Squamish will soon have the opportunity of electing their first local municipal government. At this, the first election, the entire board of three commissioners are to be elected; the candidate receiving the highest number of votes retains his seat as commissioner for three years, the second highest for two years, and the lowest for one year.

Nominations are acceptable until 12 noon, December 9th, and the elections will be held on the 16th, 17th and 18th of December. On the 16th and 17th the polling station will be open from 10 a.m. until 12 noon. The persons who shall be permitted to vote on these two days are the duly qualified voters who expect to absent from Squamish on the final day of the poll, and they will be asked to sign a statement to that effect. On Saturday, December 18th, the poll will be open to the general public from 9 a.m. until 7 p.m.

The names of all candidates nominated will appear on the ballot. Each voter may vote for not more than three candidates. An X beside more than three names spoils a ballot. However, he may vote for one or two candidates instead of three, but he may not give any one candidate more than one vote.

If your name is on the voter's list you should exercise your franchise. It has been noted lately that in both Provincial and Municipal elections, more people are becoming conscious of the value of their franchise.

The present Board of Commissioners have laid the groundwork for the procedure of this election, and they would like to see every voter in Squamish show their interest in the municipal affairs of Squamish by getting out to vote.

Intermediate Badminton Group Choose Officers

After their regular period of playing the Intermediate-group of badminton players, ranging in age from 12 to 18, chose their officers on Nov. 26. The following were chosen: President, Lex Ross; Vice-President, Jimmie Buchanan; Secretary, Elsie Nygard; Treasurer, Doreen Hurst.

This club is composed of almost 30 enthusiastic young players.

Christmas Gift for Constable Malines

The remodelling of the local police station will probably be completed in time to be an acceptable Christmas gift for Constable and Mrs. Malines.

The changes being made will divide the building into two complete units; all the south half being dwelling quarters for the constable and his wife, with police offices occupying the north half of the building. The work is being done by Pacific File Driving Company of New Westminster.

A central hot water heating plant is being installed by Squamish Hardware. This furnace, of the coal stoker type, should solve the building's heating problem, which has always been a headache to the residents.

WHIST DRIVE

The third of the series of four Whist Drives was held in the Woodfibre Community Hall on November 24th.

The winners on this occasion were: First-Prize, Ladies—Mrs. J. Hutton, Score 164; First Prize, Gentlemen—G. Birnie, Score 168; Second Prize, Ladies—Mrs. E. Norman and Mrs. J. Docherty, Tie, Score 157; Second Prize, Gentlemen—B. Rae, Score 160; Booby Prize, Ladies—Mrs. R. Greveling, Score 118; Booby Prize, Gentlemen—L. Belanger, Score 115.

The last drive of the series is being held this week, and the winner of the Grand Aggregate prize will be announced as soon as possible.

As usual, after the whist was finished there were fun and games conducted by Dave Anderson. On this occasion he was assisted by Bob Whitby, who brought with him his wire recorder, and all the competitors in the "Truth and Consequence" Game had the opportunity to hear their own voices, as well as anyone else who so desired. The highlight of this part of the evening was the singing of "The Waggle o' the Kilt" by George Birnie—he could hardly be distinguished from Harry Lauder!

The big competition of the evening was the guessing of the name of "Mr. Woodfibre", who had made a record of his voice, which it was guaranteed was well known to all residents of Woodfibre. A number of persons were called to the platform by numbers, and were given questions. If their answers were correct they were given a chance to guess the name of "Mr. Woodfibre."

The following failed to qualify: Mrs. Lynch and Mrs. Petovelo, who were not aware that dessert is the first course in a Chinese meal; Bill Dale, who did not know that the beaver is the largest Canadian rodent; P. Wickstrom, who failed to tell us that the Crown Jewels are kept in the Tower of London.

The following incorrect guesses as to Mr. Woodfibre's identity were made by those who qualified: Mrs. Hazel Frey, who stated correctly that the Three Blind Mice lost their tails through the use of a carving knife, thought he was Craig Lea; M. Gibeloff, who knew that a rabbit runs faster up hill than down, thought he was Mr. Brennan; Mrs. Inglis, who was right in saying that a brant is a goose, guessed Mr. F. Mullins, Jr., and Mrs. D. Green, who quoted correctly the last line in J. Spink's advertisement in the Squamish Review for November, said it was Mr. S. Briggs.

Finally, Mrs. Chadwick, having informed us rightly that all birds lay eggs, guessed the correct identity of the gentleman in question—Jack Spink. In the course of the evening Dave Anderson had repeatedly announced that a wood and coal stove had been donated as a prize; this was forthwith presented to Mrs. Chadwick. We hope she was not too disappointed to find that it was only eight inches high! However, it should make a nice Christmas present for some young housekeeper.

The game of "Truth and Consequences" continued with the following victims: Mrs. Greveling was caught twice. The first time, as she could not state what musical instrument has the highest pitch (it is the piccolo), she had to lap up a saucer of water; the second time she did not know whether there were more white or black squares on a checker board, and had to demonstrate shadow boxing. Mrs. Eckersley could not state the name of the river on which the town of London, Ontario, is situated, and had to give an exhibition of reducing exercises.

In the course of the evening, it was announced that a Crib Tournament will be held before Christmas, and medals will be presented both for singles and doubles entries.

RECENT BRIDE HOLDS TEA

Mrs. Angus McRae, Jr., the former Anne Reambeault, entertained a large group of friends at a tea on the afternoon of November 27, at the home of Mrs. A. McRae Sr.

CHICKEN POX RAMPANT

Canadian Bull Given Award In Argentine

"Eaton Hall Chieftan Fayne", a Holstein-Friesian bull imported into Argentina from Canada, was runner-up or reserve champion at the recent Palermo Show in the Argentine.

Judges for the important classes were invited from foreign countries, and the majority came from Britain, inasmuch as Argentine cattle are mainly descended from imported British stock. A Canadian, J. D. Innes of Woodstock, Ontario, vice-president of the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada, officiated this year for the first time at the Palermo Show.

The bride was ordering her first ton of coal.

Dealer: "What kind of coal did you want?"

Bride (puzzled): "Kind! Are there different kinds?"

Dealer: "Oh yes, for instance we have egg coal and chestnut coal."

Bride: "I'll take the egg coal. I'll be cooking eggs oftener than I will chestnuts."

In dollar value, coal is Canada's second principal import; machinery is first.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

A large group of friends and well-wishers gathered at the Parish Hall on Friday, Nov. 19 to honour Miss Patricia McCormack.

The hall was tastefully decorated in two tones of yellow. Those attending enjoyed playing bingo, after which delightful refreshments were served.

Helping Miss McCormack to open her many lovely gifts were her mother, Mrs. R. R. McCormack, and her young sister Mary as well as her bridesmaids, Miss Viola Halvorson and Miss Teresa Martin.

The bride-elect thanked all those who had remembered her so kindly on this occasion, and extended an invitation to all those present to attend her forthcoming marriage and wedding reception.

LADIES AID SALE A SUCCESS

The Ladies Aid of the Squamish United Church held their annual bazaar in the Parish Hall on Saturday, December 4th.

A fine array of novelties appealed to Christmas shoppers. Home-cooking, as usual, found a ready sale. The table of white elephants was soon bare, proving that people like to take a chance. A sawdust barrel for the children was a major attraction among the youngsters.

A group of explorers, under the leadership of Mrs. G. E. Harris, sold home-made candy. The event was very successful, despite inclement weather.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, Squamish Branch No. 115, held its regular monthly meeting November 9th.

Admitted as new members were: Mrs. Wilmer, Mrs. Dawson and Mrs. Rose Tatlow.

Mrs. Sybil Carson was presented with a Past President's badge, and a second Past President's badge was forwarded to Williams Lake for presentation to Mrs. Mableson, first president of the Squamish Branch.

Members of the Squamish Auxiliary will be in your local stores one day of each month when they will be pleased to accept any gifts of food you may wish to have enclosed in this Branch's regular overseas parcels.

It may sound too good to be true, but on December 17th twelve lucky people are going to receive a turkey in return for a 25c raffle ticket.

As in past years, the Squamish Legion is holding its annual turkey draw. Tickets may be bought from Legion members, or at the Del Mar cafe.

On Friday, December 17th, a dance will be held in the P.G.E. Hall, with music supplied by Norman McDonald's orchestra. At this function the names of twelve lucky people will be drawn, the owner of each ticket becoming the owner of a turkey.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, Branch No. 115, Squamish, will meet on Tuesday December 14th at 8 p.m. in the dining room of the P.G.E. Hall.

Oakham's Famed Horseshoe Collection

by Elizabeth Richmond
Oakham, the largest town in England's smallest county, Rutland, is renowned for its unusual collection of horseshoes.

For centuries it has been one of the town's customs to take a shoe from the horse of every peer who passed through. The custom, it is believed, began when King William's farrier lived here. By supplying substitute shoes doubtless the farrier enriched himself.

Although since motor cars have taken the place of horse traffic, the collection has not grown much, it is still a vast one. One of the shoes was given by Queen Elizabeth of Tudor times.

Courthouse of Norman Days

The horseshoes hang on the walls of Oakham Castle. Of this building there remains today a courthouse, 60 feet long and 40 feet wide. It has round stone Norman pillars, the capitals carved partly with animals playing musical instruments.

The quiet old town with its wide market-place is reminiscent of the 17th century England. A curious old butter-cross and an ancient sundial are to be seen there. One of the show buildings in the vicinity is Flores House, home of Roger Flore, who put the top on the church spire. At Oakham Lodge, where remarkably fine cedars grow in the grounds, there is an ancient well, once the meeting-place of pilgrims.

Oldest Weather Vane

The church has a weather vane, said to be one of the oldest in England. It is called Cock Peter and for centuries has been showing Rutland men the way of the wind.

Oakham, too, has a famous school, founded in 1584, its charter granted by Queen Elizabeth. The school's founder, Robert Johnson, also founded Uppingham, another famous school in Rutland.

A Christmas Carol

By Dinah Maria Mulock

GOD rest ye, mercy gentlemen; let nothing you dismay,
For Jesus Christ, our Saviour, was born on Christmas day.
The dawn rose red o'er Bethlehem, the stars shone through the gray,
When Jesus Christ, our Saviour, was born on Christmas day.

God rest ye, little children; let nothing you affright,
For Jesus Christ, your Saviour, was born this happy night;
Along the hills of Galilee the white flocks sleeping lay,
When Christ, the Child of Nazareth, was born on Christmas day.

God rest ye, all good Christians; upon this blessed morn
The Lord of all good Christians was of a woman born:
Now all your sorrows He doth heal, your sins He takes away;
For Jesus Christ, our Saviour, was born on Christmas day.

F. HAAR LEAVES
Another real old-timer has left Woodfibre. Mr. Frank Haar, Digger Foreman, who arrived in Woodfibre from Austria in 1911, with some of the original machinery for the mill, has retired from the service of the British Columbia Pulp & Paper Company.

A farewell banquet was held in his honour on November 17th, at which Mr. Brennan, on behalf of his many friends, presented him with a pen and pencil set and a travelling bag, as well as a sum of money.

Since his arrival here so many years ago, Mr. Haar has been at Woodfibre almost continuously, his longest period off the payroll of the present Company and its predecessors being about two weeks. This, I believe, gave him at the time of his retirement the record for the longest service of any employee at Woodfibre.

His family joined him here in 1912, and have played an important part in the development of the community—it was one of his daughters who named the town "Woodfibre".

We all hope that Mr. Haar will have the good luck and happiness which he deserves in his retirement.

CO-OPERATIVE PLAY GROUP
A new undertaking has just been started in Woodfibre, which should be of considerable benefit to the community. This is the Co-operative Play Group for pre-school children, which will be carried on under the supervision of Mrs. W. Ivan.

The facilities of this group are offered at a very reasonable fee, and it will be available for two hours a day, five days a week. The mothers of the younger children will no doubt find this arrangement of great assistance to them, and the project is one which fully deserves the support of the community.

The committee in charge are:

President—Mrs. E. Preiss; Secretary—Mrs. E. Beckett; Treasurer—Mrs. F. Johnson; Publicity—Mrs. J. Spink; Mrs. J. White and Mrs. H. Frey.

A case worker at the welfare agency in a southern town was interviewing an applicant who asked for aid for herself and her 13 children.

"But I don't understand," the case worker said in surprise. "You say your husband deserted you ten years ago, yet eight of your children are under ten years of age."

"Oh, I can explain that, yes, ma'am," said the applicant beaming. "You see he came back now and then to apologize."

CONVENTION
The B.C. Pulp & Paper Industrial Safety Association held its Semi-Annual Convention at Woodfibre on Monday and Tuesday, December 5th and 6th.

Representatives were present from the following major firms in the pulp and paper industry: Powell River Co.; B.C. Pulp & Paper Co., Woodfibre and Port Alice; Pacific Mills Conversion Plant in Vancouver; Canadian Boxes; Westminster Paper Co. and Sorg Pulp Co. Mr. L. Manley, Secretary-Manager of the Western Branch of the Canadian Pulp & Paper Association was also present.

Mr. Gordon Dubberley, the Safety Director at Woodfibre, was Chairman of the Convention.

At the General Meeting on Monday evening, the delegates were addressed by Mr. A. Francis, Chief Inspector for the Workmen's Compensation Board, and on Tuesday they were taken for a general tour of the plant.

P. T. A.
Mr. R. Jones, Cubmaster of the Woodfibre Wolf Cub Pack, was the guest speaker at the P.T.A. "Fathers' Night" on November 9th. Mr. Jones gave a most interesting account of the work of the Cubs, which was very much appreciated.

It was decided at this Meeting to authorize the use of the Lunch Room by the Co-operative Play Group which has just been organized.

It was Parents' Day at the School on November 15th, when the parents of the school children had the opportunity to visit the school and see for themselves the work that is being done. In spite of the inclement weather, there was a good turn-out, and tea was served to the visitors by the P.T.A.

Farming is not a big industry in Newfoundland. Most farms are worked to supplement a family's income. Only 1,400 farms operate on a commercial scale.

1949 "First Baby" Contest

TO THE PARENTS OF THE FIRST BABY BORN TO BONA-FIDE RESIDENTS OF SQUAMISH, WOODFIBRE OR BRITANNIA, THE FIRMS LISTED BELOW IN EACH COMMUNITY ARE PROUD TO PRESENT A SHOWER OF GIFTS TO THEIR RESPECTIVE "FIRST CITIZEN."

SQUAMISH'S FIRST BABY of 1949 will be received with honours, thanks to the generosity of the Squamish merchants who are co-operating in the first annual Review "First Baby of the Year" Contest.

The merchants and the Review have all chosen gifts which will be of equal value to a boy or a girl, and the lucky baby will be well equipped to commence the new year under happy circumstances.

The first baby of the New Year may not be along immediately after the commencement of 1949, but don't worry about that. The first child born to bona-fide residents of Squamish during 1949, whatever the date, will receive these well-chosen gifts, providing notification is made to The Review within 48 hours after the birth has occurred.

Baby must eat, so Squamish Dairy will supply free milk for a month, Manner's Red and White Store, anticipating the weaning period, is supplying a case of strained baby food.

For the chap who has to pace the floor, our three local restaurants will arrange to "feed father." Pop will have his breakfast at the Waltz Inn, dinner at the Del Mar and supper at the Squamish, free for a whole week while mother is away at hospital.

A good financial start in life is a necessity these days, The Review is opening a savings account at the Bank of Nova Scotia in the amount of five dollars, and whether the baby is born with a silver spoon in his or her mouth or will not will make no difference, because Douglas Fenton will provide one in any case, engraved with the baby's initials.

To keep baby snug, MacKenzie's are giving a Baby Bunting-Bag made of warm blanket cloth. For that skin you love to touch, Yarwood's will provide a lovely baby toiletry set, while the new arrival will also receive an order for a decorated birthday cake from the Squamish Bakery.

To complete the list, the return home of mother and the baby from Vancouver is assured by Glen's Taxi, who will arrange to bring them home by boat and by car to enjoy Squamish's welcome to its first baby of the year.

WOODFIBRE'S FIRST ARRIVAL in 1949 will be greeted with open arms by Woodfibre merchants, too!

The first baby of the new year is not expected to arrive on January 1st but that fact will make no difference as long as he or she as the case may be, is born to bona fide residents of Woodfibre. Notification to The Review must be made within 48 hours after the baby's birth.

So to Woodfibre's sweetheart goes a beautiful sterling silver spoon and fork set with the best wishes of Jack Spink — engraved with the baby's initials. Preparing baby's food will be made easier for mother with the double boiler to be provided by Haar and Lea Hardware in honour of the event.

The first step on the road to financial security for the 1st in '49 will be made by The Review with the opening of a $5.00 back account in the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Mother will also be remembered for Knowles and ful bouquet of flowers in honour of Woodfibre's first mother of the year.

Preparation of baby's bottle will be a pleasure for mother when she uses the electric bottle warmer to be presented by Frank Mullin while baby will also be supplied with a case of Pacific canned milk by the B.C. Pulp and Paper Co. store.

With all these gifts and the good wishes that accompany them the baby should be off to a good start.

BRITANNIA BABY CONTEST—To the first baby of 1949 born to residents of Britannia The Squamish Review will be pleased to present a Silver Baby Spoon and Drinking Cup, an All-wool Baby Blanket and will open a savings account for him or her in the amount of five dollars in the Royal Bank of Canada.

Parents must be prepared to provide proof of time of birth if necessary.

REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE

At 10:30 a.m. on the morning of Nov. 11th, veterans of Squamish and members of the Women's Auxiliary met at the Squamish Theatre to parade to the P.G.E. Hall for the annual Remembrance Day Service.

Led by E. Tutin as Director of Command, Dr. Wilkinson, Mrs. J. Gibson as flag-bearer and Mrs. D. Cameron, the parade, augmented by children and remembering adults marched down Cleveland Avenue to the drug store, along Victoria Street to Second Street and up Second Street to the P.G.E. Hall.

On entering the buildings a moment of silence in memory of fallen comrades was observed. Following the singing of "O Canada," the Rev. C. Addyman offered a prayer. Those present then joined together in singing, "O God, Our Help In Ages Past," the traditional hymn of this day.

Rev. C. Gibbs then read Psalm 90, followed by brief addresses by both Rev. Addyman and Rev. Gibbs.

After the singing of the rousing hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers," a closing prayer was offered before the official ceremony was ended.

SQUAMISH BOARD OF TRADE

The regular monthly meeting of the Squamish and Howe Sound District Board of Trade was held Wednesday, December 1, 1948, in the dining-room of the P.G.E. Hall.

There was considerable discussion on the road conditions, and the river. It was felt gravel was needed for our road.

The New Year's Eve dance was also discussed, and it was decided to have one again this year.

The members were very pleased to find that the B. C. Electric Company were looking forward to new industries opening up in Squamish when more power was available.

On a dark and stormy night the trainman was signaling to the engineer when he dropped his lantern to the ground. Another man passing by tossed it back to him on top of a boxcar. In a few minutes the engineer came rushing up.

"Let's see you do that again!"
"Do what?"
"Jump from the ground to the top of that boxcar!"

Warm water in the henhouse during the winter means more, larger and better grade eggs.

Old and New Aberdeen

by Elizabeth Richmond
Aberdeen, at the mouth of the river Dee in Scotland, is often referred to as the Granite City, after most of its buildings. Among these are the Marischal College, the extension of which was opened in 1906 by King Edward VII to celebrate the quatercentenary of Aberdeen's University.

The long graduation hall of the college has an heraldic window which illustrates its history. This history began in 1593 when George Keith, fifth Earl Marischal of Aberdeen founded it in the old Greyfriars monastery.

Ancient Spirit Present

In 1860 the Marischal College was united with King's College, which, founded in 1494 by Bishop Elphinstone, interests the visitor with its original chapel and fine tower with open crown and lantern.

Although Aberdeen today is a city of modern streets, the spirit of ancient Scotland everywhere predominates. The cathedral of St. Machar, begun in 1378, remained unfinished until 1552. Its ceiling is reminiscent of medieval Europe; it shows the shields of the Emperor Charles V, Pope Leo X, James V and his nobles, and the bishops and abbots of Scotland.

Scottish Liberator Wallace

The Wallace Tower in the Netherkirkgate with its large, low steeple represents the old Scottish style of architecture and is inset curiously with the traditional figure of the "Liberator of Scotland", William Wallace, who led armies against King Edward I of England in the 13th century.

The Market Cross in the centre of Castlegate, which dates from 1686, has a fluted column crowned by a marble unicorn, rising from an hexagonal base decorated with medallion heads of Scottish kings.

Just outside the city are fine sands and bathing beaches. The harbor is close to the fascinating Fish Market, the largest in Scotland, and where every morning miles of white fish are displayed for sale.

Highest Average Wage Mark Hit In BC History

"A peak year of industrial development" is recorded in the 30th annual report of the provincial department of labour for 1947, just issued.

"The industrial wealth of the province is reflected in the rising provincial estimated payroll, which in 1947 totalled some $490,000,000, an apparent increase of $57,080,273 over the final estimated total for 1946," the report says.

"Heavy demands for primary products, the necessity for increased production, and a rapid growth in population brought large-scale development programs in the lumber industries, public utilities, and construction industries."

The average weekly industrial wage figure for all male wage-earners rose to $43.49, the highest level yet recorded, and an increase of $3.62 over the preceding year, according to the government figures.

Greatest increase was in the lumber industries (up $30,000,000). The construction industry increased by $17,000,000 to another record.

LEGION SPONSORS BINGO NIGHT

On Friday, December 3rd, the Squamish Legion held a second night of Bingo. There was an excellent array of prizes, some lucky winners taking home as many as four prizes. The absence of coffee and doughnuts was noticed by many.

Yes, Trees Are Shipped Away To Caribbean

What is Christmas without a tree? That's what a lot of people say who live in the warm climates of the Caribbean Islands and in Central American countries. And they do something about it, for inspectors of the plant protection division, Dominion Department of Agriculture have recently inspected 30,662 Christmas trees shipped by a Maritime company to destinations in those areas.

The market in southern countries is limited to those which have a good sprinkling of former northerners residing there, reports A. E. McCollom, the Division's Supervising Inspector. Such people like to celebrate Christmas with a tree as they did in their more northerly homes.

Over the years, too, some of the natives working for these people have copied the habits of their employers, and their friends have trees in their homes at Christmas. The trees are trimmed by the natives in much the same way as is done by families in Canada.

Unfortunately a great increase in the distribution of this symbol of Christmas in these southern areas may not be possible. Santa Claus, his sleigh and reindeers unfortunately are symbolic too, and cannot make delivery; high ocean freight rates and delivery charges are actual—they add greatly to the cost of the tree to the user.

New Tenth Province—As with her sister provinces Newfoundland will be responsible for her own highways, education and most health and welfare facilities—all of which rank high among current needs. Ottawa will provide family allowances, old age pensions, unemployment insurance, sick mariners' benefits and housing assistance.

There's a lot of boys of 18 who just can't believe that some day they'll be as dumb as their fathers.

At this Christmastide . .

May we rededicate ourselves to a greater, fuller service to our community to help enrich our own lives and those with which we come in contact.

In the words of Tiny Tim—

"GOD BLESS US, EVERYONE."

NEW TAXI STAND AND SHOE REPAIR OPEN

An attractive addition to the business buildings on Cleveland Avenue is the new taxi stand and shoe repair shop.

Owned by Glen Johnson and Jack Worthington, the building was erected by Wes Wallace. There are double doors in the front, the one on the south leading to the shoe repair shop operated by Louis Battl. No longer do his patrons have to climb worn stairs to have shoes repaired.

The other door at the front opens into a bright waiting room and office for Glen's Taxi. A desk and benches make this room a cheerful spot in which to await transportation. Comfortable living quarters back of this office will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Worthington. The building is finished throughout in gyproc. The interior is well illuminated by modern fluorescent lighting. Similar lighting in the front advises passers-by as to the business carried on within the structure.

The Prince of Peace

(From The Christian Science Monitor)

At the approach of the Christmas season, when Christendom is preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus the Christ, it is well to recall those inspired words of the prophet Isaiah who, centuries before the advent of Jesus, announced the coming of the Messiah.

Written in both the present and the future tense, the prediction reads as follows (Isaiah 9: 6, 7): "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end."

The story of Jesus from the manger to the cross is familiar to all students of the Bible. During his three years' ministry in Palestine, Christ Jesus gave many proofs of the kingdom of heaven on earth as possessing a permanency and strength, which no earthly dynasty before or since, has possessed. Had Jesus accepted the arguments of the tempter and fulfilled the expectation of some of his own disciples by becoming the personal king of the Jews, his name would have been buried long ago under the dust of his story.

Understanding the spiritual significance of the Master's life-work, Mary Baker Eddy was able to recapture the original meaning of the Scriptures, and give it to the world through the revelation of Christian Science. The effectual contribution which Christian Science is making to the cause of world peace today is directly due to its clear exposition of the teaching and example of Christ Jesus.

It was the pure and unadulterated theology of the Master which led Mrs. Eddy to the discovery of Christian Science. Acknowledging her debt to the same divine Mind which inspired Christ Jesus, she writes in her illustrated poem entitled "Christ and Christmas":

As in blest Palestine's hour,
So in our age,
'Tis the same hand unfolds His power,
And writes the page.

Thus when the Bible is read in the light of Christian Science, the roots of Christ Jesus' teachings are found in the Old Testament; and the fruits of these teachings are now becoming more and more generally understood and appreciated.

Christian Science demonstrates the ever-availability of the Christ-idea as the healer of disease and the antidote for all evil. This awakening to the true sense of the ever-present Christ and its divine influence in human consciousness, is the new birth through which all men may prove their spiritual identity. To the extent that this is understood and practised, Christmas becomes, in the truest sense, a continuous and holy experience.

That Christmas Spirit!

There used to be a ditty which children chanted in the streets of the Old Country, to the effect that "Christmas comes but once a year, and when it does it brings good cheer." Well, maybe it does but not so much as it might.

Laying aside for the moment the unfortunate fact that our own country is in much better circumstances than others in providing the occasions for "good cheer," it is timely to ask if we are doing all we can, individually and collectively, within our own country, to bring about that ideal of "Peace on earth, good will to men!" which we are supposed to uphold as a religion.

Good cheer is not a matter confined to the sharing of a big special meal or of imbibing freely of spirituous beverages. Many people may regard those indulgences as part of the observance of Christmas—the season especially associated with "good cheer"—but they are by no means all. They are not even the main part of it, if we look at the question aright.

If good cheer, good will mean anything, they mean surely the sharing and enjoying in common of the essentials of good living. And good living, in the right sense, comes from the Giver of all good, and not from human generosity.

Such good will giving and sharing would not be confined to one brief season of the year, one climactic orgy of feasting and drinking that in the act of indulgence enlarges its horizon to include all who can be persuaded similarly to indulge.

Life is not that easy, and the spreading of Christmas cheer cannot be squared with our consciences by a spurt of more or less indiscriminate giving of material things at Christmastime. Nobody really questions the giving of gifts, and the close of the year seems to be generally accepted as an appropriate occasion for such giving. But if we are not to miss the real meaning of the anniversary of Jesus' birth, we are bound to keep in mind, this season and every season, that "Peace on earth, good will to men" is a goal to be kept in view throughout the year, and year by year, until it is finally accomplished.

Seven Words . .

"Peace on Earth . . . Goodwill Toward Men"

. . . seven words are those which tell a story of the fondest hopes of all mankind.

If any period will move mankind toward such considerations, it surely is Christmas time—the universal date which finds peoples of the earth pausing in the midst of everyday struggle to give thought to the real meaning of Christmas.

In the spirit of the season, we pause to greet our fellow men and to wish for them all they hold dear, the joys of peace and good will, in the greeting which the centuries have mellowed:

Taxes deducted by provinces range from five to ten per cent and each racing association is allowed a percentage ranging from nine down to five per cent according to the total amount wagered.

Radio Station CKNW Now Has 1000 Watts

New Westminster radio station CKNW has been granted an increased power of 1000 watts by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation governors.

CKNW may use 1000 watts in the daytime and 500 watts at night. At present CKNW is operating on 250 watts day and night. Plans to construct a new transmitter are expected to be ready within three months.

A most interesting lecture was given in the hall at Trinity Church, Woodfibre, on the evening of November 16th. The speaker was Mr. G. O. B. Davies, B.A. (Cambridge), M.A. (Cambridge), Instructor in the Department of History at the U.B.C. His subject was "The International Outlook". What Christmas Really Means . .

- It's the smell of mince pies wafted down the hall,
The garlands of pine branches hung on the wall.
- It's the thrill and excitement of trimming the tree,
Then drawing the curtain for the world to see.
- It's the tingle of secrecy for weeks ahead,
Then the wrapping of gifts, bright green and red.
- It's the shiny red apple left with great care
In the hopes that St. Nicholas soon will be there.
- It's the warm all-togetherness of Christmas Eve,
When overflow of affection is not hard to perceive.
- It's the ringing of church bells—O Silent Night,
The voices of carolers singing with might.

- It's the profound communion between father and mother,
At the end of a prayer made by son or daughter.
- It's all little sleepyheads with drowsy blue eyes
Dreaming of reindeer who prance through the skies.
- It's the expectant hush of the house before dawn,
Before visions of sugar plums are all gone.
- It's the rush of children to the top of the stairs
To peek in wonder at gifts that are theirs.
- It's a prayer and a wish that Christmas will be Peace everlasting—for you and for me.
