No Steel For PGE; High Winds Cause Road Link Urged Damage Here

Close on the heels of Premier Johnson's statement that there was no steel available for the P.G.E. rail link between Squamish and Vancouver came Works Minister E. C. Carson's statement that he is negotiating with the Greater Vancouver Waterboard for construction of a highway through the Capilano watershed.

Premier Johnson, in his statement said, that steel is not available at the present time for anything but defence construction.

In a special statement to the Advance this morning, Earl Nelson, chairman of the Howe Sound Highway Committee expressed the gratification of the committee and the residents of the communities involved with the statement.

Mr. Nelson placed his committee at the disposal of the government and stated that they would do everything possible to assist in the speedy completion of the road link.

He said that in the last few months there had been considerable apprehension concerning the road and the statements made by the Hon. E. C. Carson would tend to offset this.

Suggestions for Flower Exhibitors

Mrs. Florence Craigie of the B.C. Gardeners Council who will judge the flower show at the Fall Fair on Labor Day has the following suggestions for the exhibitors.

Have all flowers picked and Weather is always news they say and we've certainly had a variety this week. A small amount of rain fell during a thunderstorm on Monday but was not enough to end the forest closure.

A real Squamish wind did a lot of damage here on Monday night. Trees were blown down one of them narrowly missing the school bus garage and several clothes lines were down as a result of the gale. Gardens suffered the most with corn being flattened, tall flowers whipped and snapped off and many fruit trees were practically stripped, the ground beneath them was littered with the unripe fruit.

On Tuesday morning a dust cloud enveloped Garibaldi, a most unusual sight, as winds strong enough to cause this generally occur during the winter when the slopes are snow covered. Valley residents report that the area around the sky-hook site at the shops looked like a prairie dust-bowl.

in water in a cool place by Sunday morning or evening at the latest.

Pack the containers that you are showing your flowers in with ferns or grasses so that you can arrange the flowers to look all one way.

Potted plants should have clean pots.

Remove all buds for they count as extra flowers.

Cut gladiolus with long stems, leaving four leaves to the plant.

Add leaves belonging to the flowers whenever possible, such as nasturtiums.

School to Open On September 4

After weeks of speculation, the hopes of the high school pupils, who had dreamt that maybe they'd have an extra few weeks holiday were dashed. Even though the high school will not be ready for occupancy on Sept. 4, school will open as usual on the Tuesday after Labor Day.

After a great deal of discussion the school board, the inspector, Mr. Stafford, and Mr. Hayes have worked out the following schedule, for which staggers the elementary classes and permits high school to attend all day.

In the elementary school, grades four to six will attend from nine till twelve and grades one to three will attend the afternoon session from one three. High school will be in session from nine to three.

The school buses will pick up the morning pupils as usual and take them home at twelve picking up the afternoon pupils on the return trip.

In order to avoid confusion, the parents of pupils enrolling in grade one are requested to bring them to the school at one p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 4.

He Nearly Made It

Last Friday, Glenn Johnson drove the Harold Grahams up the mountain when they went to Diamond Head Chalet. The trip wouldn't be note worthy except for the fact that he drove the jeep to within two and one-half miles of the chalet.

In the big basin, just below the high point, rocks halted his jeep but it was the first time any four wheeled vehicle had reached that point.

Don't crowd flowers in the decorative classes, use interesting foliage. Dark colors and large flowers low in the arrangement blending to light and daintier at outline of design.

Corsages need a fresh, well made bow if ribbon is used. They should be light in weight with no wire left to catch on clothing.

Give yourself lots of time to arrange your flowers. Be at the hall early.

Fall Fair Slated For Labor Day

The fourth annual Squamish Valley Fall Fair will be held in the Community Hall on Labor Day, September 3rd.

Entries are pouring in and it appears that this will be the best Fair to date.

A feature of this year's Fair will be a display of goldfish and budgies, exhibited by Mrs. Burgess, and there will be several other displays, as well as some interesting photography displays, apart from the exhibits.

Various hobbies will be shown and the entries in this section should prove to be of great interest.

The flower show, as always, will contain many entries and competition here should be very keen. Mrs. Craigie, who will judge the flower show, in an article in this issue has some suggestions to offer the showing of flowers.

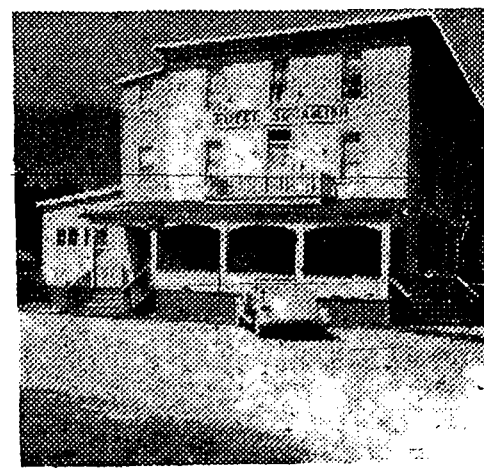

There will be sports events for the children with attractive prizes. Afternoon tea will be served in the hall and there will be bingo and other attractions as well as ice cream, hot dogs and soft drinks.

The dance will be held on Friday, Aug. 31 this year. Mrs. M. O. Colwell is refreshment convenor and George Lyons is heading the dance committee.

Local Boy Wins Speedboat Trophy

John Marsh, distinguished himself last week by winning the trophy for the three and one-half H.P. motorboat class in the Pender Harbor Regatta for the third time.

John, who used to live at Pender Harbor, had won it in 1949 and 1950 and made a special trip to compete there again. The trophy now becomes his permanent possession.

It is too bad, that owing to the lack of proper harbor facilities he did not consider it wise to bring his boat to Squamish and has sold it.
