Policy Switch

Village Restores Access To Sidewalk

Steps providing easy access to new sidewalk, as much as three feet above property levels in two places, were installed by the village last week as a result of a reversal of past policy.

Concrete slabs salvaged from the old sidewalk were halved and placed at Lassmann's, Buchanan's, Nichols' and Brennan's.

The question of restoring access where it has been disturbed by village improvements has been debated several times in council and information was sought from other municipalities.

It was found that the corporation bore the expense of restoration and that in most cases a direct frontage tax is levied for improvements, which is not the case in Squamish.

SOFT DRINKS and soft gravel combined in an awkward situation, August 10, when the above truck lost out in a fight with a ridge of paving material about to be spread on the Squamish-Britannia road. Little damage was done to the truck but a considerable quantity of "pop" went down the bank.

Welcome Trend in Village

Britannia Enters Racing Team In Swim Meet

Swimmers now in training at Britannia Beach pool will compete as racing team August 20 and 21 at the B.C. Summer Club's Invitational Swim Meet at Empire Pool in Vancouver.

Over 300 swimmers are expected at the meet. Those from Britannia, coached by Mike Stafford, are:

"Butchy" Hagan, Sharon Smyth, Rita Naujoket, Linda Knudsen, Robert Mitchell, Leroy Knudsen, Leroy MacDonald, Bill Settle, Richard Hookman, Paddy Graytricks, Brian Blundell.

Danny Sullivan, Terry MacDonald, Bill Murray, Jim Walin, Joy McLeod, Bonnie Alexander, Ken Rayburn, Stan Murray, Derreck Blundell, and Dale McGregor.

Mrs. Shields Feted By Hospital Staff

Mrs. K. Shields, whose marriage to Mr. George Lyons will take place on September 5, was guest of honor at a surprise buffet supper held at the home of Mrs. J. Taylor.

Guests included all members of the hospital staff who have worked there since the arrival of Mrs. J. Taylor.

The buffet table was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers and a centerpiece of sweet peas. Pink and white streamers also adorned the chair reserved for the guest of honor.

Following the buffet supper Mrs. Shields was presented with a number of lingerie gifts from the assembled guests.

Improved Streets Cue For Improved Property: Antosh

Street improvement followed by adjacent property improvement, in the opinion of commissioner Antosh, seems to be the trend in the village, and it is one that he welcomes.

Speaking as a member of the roads, lanes and sidewalk committee, Mr. Antosh said he found the new paving well done but it tended to "show up" some private properties that were not particularly well kept.

However, he said, in past years most owners had taken their cue from the village improvements to make their properties more sightly.

The good paving job, according to John Jacobsen, chairman, reflected a great deal of credit on the village crew for their excellent work in preparing the streets to be paved.

"Approximately one mile of blacktopping was completed last week by City Construction Co.

Need Evening Connection

Ferry And Train Ignore Woodfibre

Changes in PGE passenger train schedule, August 9, with no accommodating changes in the Woodfibre-Britannia ferry schedule have left Woodfibre travellers with no convenient transportation home in the evenings.

Daily, except Friday and Sunday, the last Ferry to Woodfibre leaves Britannia at 6:30 p.m., one hour before the train arrives from North Vancouver.

On Friday and Sunday the ferry makes an extra trip leaving Britannia at 7:30 p.m., just eight minutes before the train arrives.

The ferry, which is government operated solely for the convenience of the community of Woodfibre, is expected to change schedule in compliance with the wish of the people it serves.

Squamish Coach Lines bus service, which coincides with the morning ferry arrival at Britannia, misses the night fun to Woodfibre by several hours.

Since both the train and the bus serve other communities on their route it is deemed that the ferry should be the service to change.

Before the train changed schedule Woodfibre passengers arrived at Britannia 15 or 20 minutes before the ferry's 6:30 departure.

NICK CANDY WINS IN FISHING DERBY

Ten pounds can make a lot of difference in a fishing derby, as can be attested by Nick Candy; the difference between $5,000 and a 5 1/2 horse power outboard motor.

Nick won the motor for his 27 lb., 13 oz., spring salmon which placed 13th in the Canadian Legion-C-Fun fishing derby in Howe Sound, August 15 and 16.

Top prize $5,000, went to a West Vancouver angler, I. G. Carr, 2161 Palmerston Ave., for his 37 pound spring caught near the mouth of the Squamish River where most of the big prize winners were hooked.

Mr. Candy was the only Squamish angler to win a prize.

The competition was terrific not only on the water but along the Squamish, Britannia and Porteau shores where thousands vied for camping, parking and launching sites. From Friday evening till Sunday night the car without a boat attached was the exception.

PGE Freight Up 50 Per Cent in '59

Carloadings on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway increased by about 50 percent for the first seven months of 1959 over a similar period last year.

Figures released today by N. V. Paul, general freight and passenger agent, show the 1959 total to July 31 as 31,780 compared to 21,307 in 1958.

Loadings for July were 5,274 as against 4,196 for July last year.

Must Relocate: Kindree

Water Main Thru Drain Causes Consternation

Harvey Hurren On Cemetery Board

Squamish Valley Cemetery Board, which has been short one member for several years' has been finally brought up to full complement with the appointment of Harvey Hurren.

Others are Stan Clarke, chairman, Eric Axen, Frank Buckley, and Larry Dent.

The new appointment was made by Lt. Gov. F. M. Ross on the recommendation of the chairman.

A water main which runs directly through a drain containing septic tank effluent was discovered two weeks ago when PGE water works crew located a break in the main at that particular spot between the Chieftain Hotel and Yarwood Drugs.

Stan Clarke reported the condition to the village council at the last regular meeting.

MUST RELOCATE

Commissioner Kindree, also medical health officer, said the arrangement was intolerable and the main must be relocated.

Fortunately, the workmen had constructed a manhole at the spot giving fairly easy access to the water main.

This drain, which originally drained a slough west of Chieftain Hotel, was first built under the road by the provincial government 35 years ago. Additions have since been made at both ends as further filling and building took place.

No longer needed for draining the slough which has been filled the drain takes septic tank effluent from the drug store and into the main storm drain which in turn runs across the municipal park in a south westerly direction emptying into the catch basin in the vicinity of Third and Main.

ADDITIONAL DRAIN

Several weeks ago A. B. Mackenzie and J. H. Worthington petitioned council for permission to lay a 10-inch effluent drain along the lane behind the department store and taxi office and to connect near the south end of the block with the old drain.

Council's decision on the petition was postponed until the matter of drain and water main is remedied.

Local Witnesses To Attend Convention

Lloyd Twiss, presiding minister of Jehovah's Witnesses announced today, that the Brackendale congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses has been invited to attend a four-day convention to be held September 3 to 6 at Queen's Park in New Westminster, B.C. Mr. Twiss will head the local delegation of about 15 persons.

The convention is being arranged by the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society of Toronto, Ontario, for Jehovah's Witnesses. A peak attendance of 10,000 is expected at the New Westminster convention which is the last of a series of 30 such assemblies that have been arranged for Canada, the United States and Iceland.

"The purpose of the meeting," said Mr. Twiss, is to provide additional Bible instruction for the Witnesses and to enable them to apply principles more fully to their everyday lives and activities in spite of threatening world conditions. For this reason the program carries the theme "wake Ministers". There will be morning, afternoon and evening sessions devoted to Bible talks, discussions and practical demonstrations, he explained.

Use North Van. Facilities

Business Office Of B.C. Tel. Closes

B.C. Telephone Company's business office in Squamish will be closed August 31.

From Tuesday, September 1, the usual enquiries and applications for service can be made by calling long distance operator and asking for Zenith 8000 - a "no charge" number to B.C. Telephone Company's North Vancouver commercial office.

Long distance, information and repair service will still be handled by Squamish operator.

Reason for the closing of the office was given by Bert F. Abram, district commercial manager, who said more efficient service would be provided by the concentration of all commercial work in the North Vancouver office, where a larger staff is available.

Although there will no longer be a public telephone office at Squamish, bills may be paid at Mackenzie's Department Stores Ltd., Cleveland Avenue.

Pemberton bills should be paid at Warren's Pemberton Ltd. The present Pemberton agent, Mrs. Vera Nelson, is retiring August 31.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE SOON

Vacancy in the Public Health office will be filled August 24 when Miss May Nelsh transfers here from Rossland, B.C.

She will replace Miss Joan Anderson, former Public Health Nurse, now serving at Longford, Vancouver Island.

In the meantime the local office is staffed by Mrs. Eva Gedde.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

Omitted from last week's list of teachers in School District No. 48 (Howe Sound) were two from Howe Sound High, S. D. Foreman and Mrs. Ruth Smith.

FAMILY ESCAPES SERIOUS INJURY

Family of Robert Kuhn, Squamish, narrowly escaped serious injury when his car smashed into the rock wall along the Seaview Highway, August 11.

As it was his wife and three boys were rushed to Squamish General Hospital by Ambulance, treated for cuts and abrasions and released.

Mr. Kuhn said he was driving along about 35 miles an hour and must have dozed long enough to go off the road into the bluff.

Difference in Bid $4,385.80

School Board Hires "Outside" Builders: Pemberton Objects

Correspondence from Pemberton appearing on another page of The Times indicates dissatisfaction over a Pemberton school extension contract, being awarded to a contractor not within the school district.

Don Ross, secretary-treasurer of School District No. 48, informs The Times that the school board acted according to Department of Education regulations in accepting the lowest tender of $53,500, which was $4,385.80 below the next bid of $57,885.80 submitted by J. H. Nelson of Pemberton.

Of five tenders received by the board two were from contractors within the school district, the other being from Stan Banyard, Squamish, for $69,036.

Bids received were: H. H. Muller, $53,500; J. H. Nelson, $57,885.80; Basarab Construction, $63,478; Imperial Builders, $63,662; and Stan Banyard, $69,036.

To be built are two classrooms, principal's office, shower rooms, and garage for two buses.

The school board, in the past, has expressed concern over the lack of local bidders on school contracts.

Only contract awarded locally in recent years was to the Twiss Bros., for a teacherage at Brackendale and an addition to the multi-teacherage at Squamish.

H. H. Muller of Abbotsford has built extensively in the district: two room extension and gymnasium to Pemberton Superior School in 1957, a two room school at Pemberton Meadows, covered play area at Creekside school, one room school and covered play area at Alta Lake, and a teacherage and covered play area at Garibaldi.

Pemberton Meets a Situation ...

Merchants and citizens of Pemberton and Mount Currie have no need to take second-place to any commercial district in North America. This is the opinion of The Times formed from the startling performance and results from the "Buy At Home Week" promotion held recently.

Indeed Boards of Trade across Canada would do well to take a leaf out of the commendable record established with the Pemberton Board's "Buy at Home" stunt.

At the opening of the "Buy at Home" campaign, Pemberton Board of Trade president, Robt. H. E. Taylor, reviewed the community effort in a comprehensive and factual manner. We feel it only right that it be repeated here in part:

"As we grow up in the family of communities, we are faced with the responsibility of meeting situations. Community effort, no matter how small, is always important and as communities grow it becomes more important still.

"The Board of Trade is the business voice of this Community. Possibly some people do not realise the importance of shopping at home, what it means to them as individuals to have stores, garages, and local enterprises. Let us suppose that our initial effort to create interest in "Buy at Home" should realize a sum of $300.00. Let us imagine that this is 2% of the money you spent here last week. How many realize that this represents $15,000.00 changed hands.

"Suppose we multiply this by 52 to make a year. The answer is almost a million dollars. Out of this annual take by local merchants nearly 1/3 returns directly to this place in the form of wages. Roughly 20 merchants pay taxes, build new buildings support our organizations and enter into the community life to the benefit of all.

Compare this to the dollar you send away to mail order houses, or your needs in domestic purchases, your automobiles, farm equipment or any article you could pay the same price for here. What do these outside buys get you back in the way of wages, where do you get your service, how much do the mail order houses pay here in taxes and what do they do for your community life?

"It must be obvious to you all that the competitive price has brought to you local prices that compare in most cases with catalogue or advertised goods outside.

"Therefore we hope that our "Buy At Home" week will become an annual community effort that will serve as a concrete example to boost worthy community efforts from which we all benefit. This demonstration by your merchants is worthy of respect because it is voluntary.

"We hope by next May to put on a "Buy At Home" week that will surpass this initial effort, bring you closer to your wayward dollar, and provide you with some community project that otherwise you might not have."

"No beds? ... Put a six-foot splint on him and stand him in the corner."

Letters to The Editor

Editor, Squamish Times,
Dear Sir:

A few weeks ago you had an editorial regarding the behaviour of the local Bd. of Trade towards the Provincial Cabinet.

Rumour has it that Cabinet waited for an half an hour for representatives of the Board of Trade to appear, if that is the case your editorial was in order and the Board should have been criticized.

Maybe someone has the correct information on this, if so they should tell it to clear the air one way or another.

Yours truly
An interested party

Board's action, but we do not consider they have acted in our best interest.

Yours truly,
R. H. E. Taylor,
President.

Editor, Squamish Times,
Dear Sir:

I note the Mayor of Vancouver has extended an invitation to N. S. Khrushchev to visit Vancouver. How about getting together, folks, and sending an invitation to Mr. K. to visit Squamish?

After we lost out in not being included in the honour list of the recent itinerary of the tour of the Queen, and that coupled with the deep disappointment so many Squamish people suffered in not realising high profits on the sale of their land after the coming of the road, I think Mr. K. might have some bright ideas.

I don't say his ideas would be entirely advantageous to the modern idea of prosperity, but it could help. He might even put the logges back to work.

I think the School Board should get in on this and not expect the council to bear all the costs of the visit. They could offer him cheap accommodation in one of their vacant apartments in the Squamish Teacherage, or does tax free property extend to accommodating aliens.

STAN CLARKE

Editor, Squamish Times,
Dear Sir:

Premier Bennett recently proclaimed at Kelowna that British Columbia's debt had been eliminated.

This statement is false for two reasons:

Editor, Squamish Times,
Dear Sir:

At a meeting of the Pemberton Board of Trade held August 11 I was instructed to write to the Board of School Trustees, Howe Sound District, No. 48, Squamish, B.C., and voice strong condemnation of their action in the matter of allocating a contract for additions to the Pemberton Superior School.

It is realized that the lowest bid on the surface appears as a saving to the tax payers of the Howe Sound School District, but we feel that the small saving in this by employment of those who do not live in the Howe Sound School area is not warranted, when it is realized that so many thousand dollars will now be spent on contractors who will not employ any labour within this area.

We trust that on future occasions the trustees will take into consideration all factors that have bearing on the well being of the District they serve and avail themselves of the clause that the lowest or any bid is not necessarily accepted.

It is with regret that this board goes on record as being disappointed by the School stakes far higher than the gaming tables of Nevada ever see.

That is what makes the situation alarming. It is a gamble no one can afford to take.

Remember, the fire-fighting equipment belongs to taxpayers within the municipality of Squamish limits, and if a fire should break out in the town while the fire department is fighting a blaze in Brackendale or North Yards, what then? It is all too clear to rational thinking people that a fire department the size of ours cannot be in two places at once.

But we have heard that such a problem has been faced and solved in other small towns. A responsible group have organized a rural fire protection district with authority to levy a tax for the purchase and maintenance of equipment for use outside of the village limits.

The areas north of Squamish will, some day, become heavily residential and it is important that adequate fire protection is maintained. There is certainly none to speak of now.

The sooner the taxpayers in these unprotected districts realize this, the better it will be for the welfare of their families and homes.

Do we hear a meeting being called to form plans for action?

Fire Fighting in Brackendale ...

While we do not look forward to it, the day may come when there will be a bad house fire in the Brackendale district and there will be no equipment to fight it. This does not include the possible loss of life.

The whole question of fire fighting apparatus and volunteers has seldom been discussed by residents of this area and any surrounding unorganized neighboring districts. No one likes to think of such unpleasant happenings and those who do, shrug off the danger with the assumption that Squamish municipality volunteers would come to the rescue.

But if you live in Brackendale, not paying taxes to the village for village services, are you entitled to the services, such as a fire engine and hoses?

It is a nasty decision for officials to make. There can be only one answer, but this duty may be a soul-searching thing when it means watching helplessly while a friend and neighbor's property goes up in smoke.

Suppose a fire breaks out in a home outside the municipal limits. The natural, humane desire is to send the fire fighting equipment and manpower at full speed on their life-saving mission. But to do so is taking a gamble for

Reader Acceptance ...

Weeklies Still Lead In Advertising Media

Far too much marketing emphasis is being placed today on so called "captive audiences" and far too little on "captive audiences," according to W. H. (Bill) Cranston, head of the Shoe Corporation of Canada.

Addressing the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association in Regina, Mr. Cranston said, "No audience will remain 'captive' for long simply by reason of some physical limitation of TV or radio signals.

"It must be 'captive' in terms of personalized viewer or reader interest and, in this field, Canada's community-minded newspapers, daily and weekly, hold a large potential lead over other advertising media."

"Newspaper readers are held 'captive' for advertisers basically not because of any limitation of competitive signal strength, but because their horizons are coincidental with those of the editors, the reporters and the advertisers who jointly create the community journal."

Newspaper "captive," Mr. Cranston told the convention, attended by some 400 Canadian publishers and their wives, consists essentially in the fact that their news, comment and adver-

medium known and respected locally. This is where the local newspaper, with its 'captive' audience, can do such a good job. It can be, and is, a key link between consumer, marketer and manufacturer."

To illustrate his point, Mr. Cranston disclosed that dealer-localized national advertising, placed experimentally last year in over 100 Canadian daily and weekly newspapers, had increased the volume of their branded footwear by over 42%.

MR. AND MRS. CHRISTIAN WYSSEN

Squamish United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding, Saturday, August 15, at 11 a.m., when Margaretha Gerda Johannä, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arie Hoogenboom, Squamish, was married to Christian Wyses, of Squamish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wyses, Bern, Switzerland. The Rev. N. J. Penrose conducted the ceremony.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white nylon and lace and a fingertip veil held by a coronet of white tulle and sequins. She carried a corsage of red roses and white carnations.

Matron of honor was her sister, Gerda Ria, who wore a sky blue sheath gown with white accessories and carried pink and lilac carnations. The groom was attended by best man Joseph DeVriend and ushers A. L. A. Hankey and Gerald Kristianson.

For her going away costume the bride wore a light green linen suit with white accessories.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the Church Hall.

Out of town guests were Mr. A. De Wral and daughter, Daphne; and Mr. and Mrs. Akerboom and children, Dick, Fritz, Mary and Jerry.

The couple will honeymoon in the Okanagan and return to live in Squamish.

FIRE HAZARD

whether on the highway or in the woods - BE CAREFUL!

A carelessly dropped match, cigarette, or even pipe tobacco ash can lay waste to a forest that took a hundred years or more to grow - require another century to replace.

In this area only a prolonged rainfall will lessen the extremely hazardous condition.

So when woods travel is restricted because of fire danger - help protect lives and jobs - observe the closure regulations.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Knight of Mount Sheer, a son, 1675, 14 ozs. August 11 in Squamish General Hospital.

Mt. Sheer Community Church Women's Auxiliary held a very successful tea in the church hall, August 12.

Attendance was most encouraging and included visitors from the Beach, Mesdames Pringle, Allan, Emery, Bradley, Shuttleworth and Dinsley.

Dr. W. B. Taylor, provincial government field dentist, arrived last week at Mount Sheer to conduct the preventative dental clinic for children aged 3 to 9 years.

The doctor and Mrs. Taylor have set up the clinic in the school and are very busy in what may be a three-week program.
