Brennan balks on sharing school district business

Pat Brennan, chairman of the Squamish Village Council, said, April 18, that either the council should run the school district or else have nothing to do with it in the way of collecting the taxes and reviewing the budget.

He complained of the system that asks the commissioners to approve the school budget several months before the school board knows what share the municipality must bear. This depends on the whim of the government, he said, but in effect it is the council which issues the tax notices and collects the taxes that takes the blame.

Mill rate 20.01 for schools: up 1.44 over 1962

Mill rate for schools will be up 1.44 mills to 21.01 this year in the village of Squamish for a total tax of $59,645, an increase of $18,710.34 over last year on an increase in assessment of $746,867.

This increase in assessment of $746,867 is mostly due to Canadian Collieries new saw-mill. Lesser contributing factors would be the few new homes, Squamish Lanes, Alpine House, etc.

TAX AND HOME OWNERS

The 1.44 increase in mills will mean that business and industry will pay that much more but the increase to eligible home owners will be more than offset by the $20 increase in home-owner grants, up to $70 from $50, which the provincially government put into effect for this year.

Taking the 1962 assessment of $2,091,179 as nearly similar to this year's if the new industry is not included and therefore representing mostly homes, the 1.44 mill increase yields $3,011.20 whereas the $20 increased home-owner grant represents a total of $5,300 to the 265 home owners in the village eligible for home owner's grant. Home owners then come out on top by about $2,000.

The average mill rate for schools throughout the province is 21.54, up from last year, 19.59. In Squamish it is 21.01, up from 19.58.

VILLAGE PORTION

The village portion of the total school district assessment is up this year to 9.4 per cent from 7.37 per cent in 1962.

Total district assessment is $30,110,935. It was $28,376,144 last year.

The village of Pemberton bears 82 per cent of the total this year as compared to 77 per cent last year.

Assessments for school purposes are made on land and improvements including machinery. Assessments for municipal purposes are made on land and improvements only.

The $18,710.34 increase in school taxes is mostly accounted for by the 20.01 mills on additional assessment of $746,867 yielding $15,691.67 which will be borne mostly by Canadian Collieries.

Delayed hikers "rescued"

Three mountaineers, trapped for four days by blizzards at 7500 feet elevation on Mount Garibaldi, were spotted by rescue helicopter Wednesday afternoon, April 17, and brought out.

Don Rostock, Don Hoover and Lloyd Williams, all from the Vancouver area, were skiing out toward Garibaldi Lake, within one half hour of ground search parties, one of which radioed the big 'copter to pick them up.

They were not lost, merely holed up with food and shelter during the storm, they said. They were out six days, since starting the hike from Diamond Head Chalet the previous Thursday.

The Mountain Rescue Groups from Vancouver went into the area on Tuesday, as did RCMP Constable Gerry Poid of Squamish.

Air search was hampered by low cloud ceiling.

J. Phillips joins C of C

Jeff Phillips of Town and Country Shoes was accepted into Squamish Chamber of Commerce at the April 17 meeting.

He was sponsored by Jim Kilburn of Squamish 5c to $1 Store.

Dog patrol once a month

Dogs at large to be impounded

Dogs allowed to run at large after May 1 within the village of Squamish may be impounded.

Village council has made arrangements with West Vancouver council and the West Vancouver branch of the SPCA for periodic poundkeeper patrols in Squamish.

ONE PER MONTH

Council has asked for a trial period of three months with one eight-hour patrol per month.

Any dog not "under the direct custody and control of competent person" shall be liable to impounding.

Dogs so impounded may be reclaimed from the poundkeeper during the eight-hour patrol period on payment of the $5 impounding fee and the license fee if the dog is not already carrying a current license.

FINE UP TO $100

All dogs over six months of age must be licensed. The charge is $2 for male and spayed females and $5 for unspayed females. The fine for harboring an unlicensed dog is not to exceed $100.

Dogs not claimed on the day of impounding will be taken to the SPCA pound in West Vancouver and kept there for 96 hours. This will incur an additional charge of $1 for each day for boarding fee.

After that the dogs will be either destroyed or sold. If sold, the poundkeeper will be reimbursed for fixed fees and apply the balance, if any, not claimed by the owner within one month, to general municipal revenue.

COST TO VILLAGE
If a dog is destroyed the village of Squamish will pay the $4 boarding fee to the SPCA.

For the poundkeeper patrols the SPCA will charge the municipality $3 per hour and 10 cents per mile. For many years councils of Squamish have been periodically requested to control dogs. The latest request came several months ago from the Chamber of Commerce.

Council made the foregoing arrangements with West Vancouver believing them to be more workable and at less cost than having a Squamish pound and dog catcher.
A review of results and costs will be made at the end of July.

HOUSE NUMBERING, a long awaited guide to Squamish citizens, is in progress here as Pete Marlow, left, tacks up the digits in the 4000 block.

May Day plans climax May 20

Once more the traditional Victoria Day celebrations will be sponsored by the Elementary P.T.A. with the kind support of the School Board, Elementary Schools, Secondary School and Squamish Recreational Commission.

Princesses are being elected from each of the four elementary schools and it is hoped by this time next week to have the name of the new Queen.

The choice will be made by three impartial judges.

All convenors have not yet been obtained, but further announcements will be made.

The flower girls are being supervised by Mrs. Bernhard Brown and any parents with little girls entering school this September may phone Mrs. Brown if they have not already been contacted.

Mrs. Esther Rae and Mrs. D. Dickie are in charge of the Royal Party.

Mrs. L. Hurren and committee will provide a tea for the Royal Party and parents following the ceremonies.

Races will be held on the grounds by courtesy of the S.R.A. and other concessions will be run by various organizations.

Anyone interested in a concession not already spoken for, may contact Mrs. Dennis Wood for information.

The committee would also welcome any floats to be entered in the parade. The first prize, of a Challenge Trophy, is kept for one year, unless won three consecutive years by the same group.

There will be cash prizes for children for the best costume, the best comical costume and best decorated bike, trike, buggy, etc. So come on children, get mommy busy on the sewing machine.

The parade will commence at 1:00 p.m., May 20, and proceed along Cleveland to the Mashiter grounds. Ceremonies will follow in the High School gymnasium. Come on out and enjoy an afternoon of fun for all.

Semi-annual community club meet

The semi-annual meeting of the Britannia Community Club is being held Thursday, April 25, in the Movie Hall at 8 p.m.

Normally held in the Upper Club room, the meeting has been moved to the Movie Hall to accommodate the large crowd anticipated.

Dr. R. Ramsay of U.B.C., who recently completed a very thorough survey of the recreational facilities and needs of the community will give the highlights of his report.

Everybody who cooperated in filling out questionnaires and particularly all parents should be interested in his findings.

The possibility of hiring a full time Recreation Director will be discussed.

Also on the agenda is a report from the Community Chest and the election of officers.

Two seriously injured in PGE yard accident

Two PGE employees were seriously injured in a railway yard accident at Squamish, April 18. George Baloompis, 32, had his leg amputated below the knee in Vancouver General Hospital and Joe Turley, 27, lost a section of bone and tissue of one leg and is undergoing treatment to save it.

It is reported that the yard crew shunted a string of cars into some others, not knowing of the other men's presence.

Smooth driving cuts gas bill

You can save many dollars each year in gasoline bills through improved driving habits, says the B.C. Automobile Association.

The BCAA has listed these economy tips for motorists:

- A fast start can drop your gasoline mileage to six miles per gallon.

- A sudden thrust on the throttle to pass another car can cut mileage by 50 percent.

- An out-of-tune motor can reduce mileage by one-third.

- Braking your car to a sudden stop wastes gas.

- Smooth, steady driving can increase your mileage by three miles per gallon.

- The biggest factor in your car's gasoline mileage is the number of starts and stops it must make.

- Your new standard size car cruises most economically at 55-miles per hour.

- When coasting downhill in gear, your car gets about 100 miles per gallon.

- Of two different engines differing only in compression ratio, the higher compression engine will require less gas.

Mt. Currie kids may go by bus

School children from the Mount Currie Indian Reserve may be given swimming instruction at One Mile Lake Park near Pemberton if school bus transportation can be arranged.

Cost of transportation by school bus will be 30 cents a mile and the driver's wages. All swimmers would have to be students of the school. It is estimated that there would be between 100 and 150.

Trustee Mrs. Ben Cherry queried the board on costs at the April 10 meeting. There will be a qualified swimming instructor at the pool, she said.

Michael Brown took third prize in Easter week-end fishing derby by Squamish Rod and Gun Club and was the only local fisherman to score.

First prize for Cheekye steelhead went to a Mr. Field of the Qualicum club, 10½ pounds; second, 9½ pounds, to George Tackell, Vancouver, and third to Michael, 9 pounds 5 ounces.

He also landed one of the few trout caught.

Sewerage extended at Mamquam

A bond issue of $50,000 for Mamquam Sewerage District has been approved by Victoria and the addition of the Highlands area to the district has been sanctioned.

This and other pertinent business will be dealt with at the annual meeting in the Mamquam School, on April 20, according to Pat Goode, secretary.

Special thanks to Mr. Buffrey for the entertainment.

Mr. Clark gave an enlightening talk on St. John Ambulance and competition work.

He also expressed gratification for the increase in number of people being trained in the Squamish area.

He said: "We of St. John are deeply interested in training as many people as possible in First Aid, especially those working in the woods, mills and the railroad."

"We would like to see every man with this training as well as the ladies of the area."

"I would like at this time to express our thanks to the different companies in the Squamish area who supported their employees in the recent Industrial First Aid training."

"This type of training, not only makes the employees more safety conscious, but provides them with the knowledge of how to save lives until professional help arrives."

We are looking forward to a large enrolment of new students in our next class. We plan on conducting an advanced class in the fall with the view to forming our own centre and entering into competition work."

In addition to the foregoing there will be advertised in May "Save a Life Lectures." These are very valuable and timely prior to the summer holiday season.

May 20

Curling membership now 100: Quota set at 150

Paid membership in Howe Sound Curling Association was tabulated at 100 at the meeting, April 19, in the Chieftain Hotel, and is steadily rising to the set quota of 150.

Members will have first claim of all recreational and social functions of the club and those who wish these privileges are urged by the executive to join now.

A family membership is $150 and single membership is $100, and the ratio to date is 80-20 in favor of the former.

brought out April 17, six days after starting hike from Diamond Head Chalet to Garibaldi Lake. They were "holed up" for four days by bad storm.

SQUAMISH, B.C. — THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1963

Don't Forget The Customer...

When one's security is threatened by competition it is a natural tendency to fight back if one wants to survive. There are two obvious ways of doing this: one is to remove the cause, the other is to make one's own position secure in spite of competition.

We would like to see the merchants of Squamish take the latter course. They have this advantage over new competition: they are already here; they are already established. And it should be up to them to vie for the customer's dollar. They came into the village in the first place because they thought the business prospects looked good, because they thought they could get a big enough share of the customer's dollar to make a profit. Now they would like to deny this opportunity to others.

At the public meeting, April 18, not one businessman said, "Let the new commercial development come. I am not scared of competition." Only two at the meeting spoke in favour of it and they were not businessmen, they were customers.

The businessmen might well take a lesson from the products they sell. When they buy they have the right to order from the supplier who gives them the best deal. Should this right be denied the customers of Squamish?

Take a close look at the merchandise on the shelves. Good merchandising today demands attractive packaging and convenient display. This is all done to attract the customer. Call it frills if you like but it is one of the dominant factors of good merchandising.

Manufacturers spend millions on it just to get their share of the customer's dollar. They're realistic. They know that without customers they are dead. They know that their product must be good enough to compete and that it then must be presented in such a way as to attract customers.

Take a close look at the two downtown business blocks on Cleveland Avenue. Are they attractive? Is there enough space for easy parking? Is the access to the stores easy? Are the window displays enticing? Is the sidewalk swept clean in front? These are some of the "inconsequential" that the smart merchandisers are very concerned with.

How can the downtown be made an attractive business district? If you don't know find out from somebody who does. Find a plan that suits your taste and that of your customers and act on it. It will cost some money but, gentlemen, you are fighting for survival.

There are a lot of new people coming into this valley and they don't care a plugged nickel whether you survive or not. They are going to do business with the place that attracts them most. They hold your future. Cater to them.

But Can We Listen...

Seldom before has the taxpayer of British Columbia had a better opportunity of hearing what his elected representative has to say. There isn't a day that goes by when some M.L.A., M.P. or councillor is not debating, or being interviewed over radio or television, or expounding as guest speaker at a local function.

But it is not enough to have our government representatives sounding off if the public is not intelligent and experienced enough to know how to listen.

Neglected in our educational system is the art of listening. It takes training and self-discipline to listen well.

Suppose Premier Bennett and Mr. Strachan lock debating horns, suppose David Fulton and Hon. Gagliardi pit each other to a brain-to-brain combat before live audiences in an atmosphere that allows them to state positions and develop them. Then what?

Will the audiences also rise to the occasion? Will they know what the public servants are talking about?

Listening to a political debate is not just a sometimes thing. It is not an exercise like hiking to Diamond Head chalet. Political debates deserve better than that.

Audiences ought to have been trained and conditioned through the years to hear the evidence and render judgments that serve the public interest. That is what our education is supposed to have done for us.

We should have more public addresses and more panels on public affairs — thoughtful ones, set up to allow intelligently penetrating dialogue that sheds light, gives information and suggests programs.

And then most of us must re-develop that priceless faculty of being a good listener.

Too Many Educational Cooks...

In the wake of the huge wave of publicity given to the University of B.C. president, Dr. J. B. Macdonald's report on "Higher Education in British Columbia and a Plan for the Future", an important brief submitted by the B.C. School Trustees Assoc. has swirled by practically un-noticed.

Simply, the Trustee Association warns that early and positive action be taken to prevent a polyglot of post-high school education in B.C.

The delegation brief establishes a point when they voice alarm at the multiplicity of authorities, both government and private, offering a variety of courses outside the public school system.

We support this, and further caution that the department of education and school boards must deal on a wide community basis to include persons not involved in the area in which Dr. Macdonald has been working. This would include adult education, vocational and technical training, job re-training and other fields.

Absolute control of schools by government is open to many dangers.

We believe that Dr. Macdonald's "community colleges" should be an extension of the public school system and directed by school boards, and municipalities seeking such colleges should recognize that they must contribute financial support.

The taxpayer should be greatly concerned at the exclusion of school boards from the management of vocational schools being set up by the government. This is, we believe, an error which will be compounded as such schools develop unless corrective action is taken.

Irreparable damage could result in a runaway, uncontrolled, inefficient and costly expansion which failed to meet the needs of the people.

Four Hours To Cache Creek...

A four-hour drive along one of the world's most scenic routes to the incomparable B.C. Interior from the carport of the North Shore home owners is more than a figment of imagination.

In fact, only 15 miles of road remain to be constructed along Anderson Lake to provide a through road to Lillooet and the Interior.

The Squamish Times cannot over stress the importance to municipalities on the North Shore of having this route completed. It would also open up Garibaldi Park to the public from two directions.

The benefits of a second route to the Interior, as far as the motoring public is concerned, are obvious. It would alleviate the traffic congestion through the winding Fraser Canyon on weekends

Down On The Farm...

Most citizens of the North Howe Sound communities are aware that there has been something of an agricultural revolution in Canada in the past years, but few, perhaps, realize the magnitude of it.

Some indication of what it has meant in mechanical terms is given in recent official statistics showing that the value of machinery and equipment on Canadian farms increased by one-third between 1951 and 1961.

It would provide a fantastic circle tour on any weekend, passing such picturesque centres as Squamish, Alta Lake, Pemberton Valley, D'Arch, Seton Portage, Lillooet, Cache Creek, and back down the Fraser Canyon. What a delightful offering to our travel-hungry tourists!

There are many other advantages such as offering further evacuation routes from the coast in case of disaster and bringing closer the great food producing centres for agricultural products.

We are happy to know that a drive is being launched by the Squamish-Lillooet Highway Committee to urge the Provincial Government for the immediate construction and completion of this highway — Trans-Canada No. 2.

Trucks, tractors, grain combines, milking machines, electric motors and milk coolers, forage crop harvesters, hay balers, swathers. The increase in these and other equipment explains both the reduction in the size of the agricultural labor force and the simultaneous rise in the productivity of the land.

The farmer's boy of a few years ago now makes or services the machinery which does so much more efficiently the work he once did by hand.

DOWN IN THE ALLEY

by J. G. Street

Hi! Everybody. A belated score that got mixed up in the Easter Basket came from that enthusiastic group, the Britannia Teachers League.

Sunday, April 21st, teams from Woodfibre came over and played the local teams that bowled over there last year. The objective was winning the Challenge Trophy. I was unable to get a confirmed result on this match but the grapevine gives the odds to Woodfibre. Will give you the final word on this next week.

Citizenship committee busy

Jim Elliott, chairman of the citizenship committee of Squamish Chamber of Commerce, reported handling four applications recently for citizenship from immigrants.

There have also been quite a few enquiries, he said as chairman George Behner appointed two others, Fred Bennett and Gene Klymchuk, to assist him.

This is one of the few places Elliott said, where applications can be processed, a responsibility given to him as a magistrate.

Mamquam juniors became the first team this season, to lower the colors of the rampaging Brackendale juniors when they defeated the league leaders 2-1 at Mamquam last Saturday.

Mamquam boys gave early warning that they meant business, when right after the kick-off, Mike Sorban neatly placed a long ball past Marty Hopkins. Norm Ross then got one for Brackendale. Mamquam continued to play a nice team game, moving the ball around in contrast to the ragged work of their opponents. Tony Sorban clinched the points with a goal in the second half.

The locals produced a fine team effort, and if any had to be singled out, it would be Jay Carrett for a dominating display, and goalie Terry Sandberg for his acrobatics in keeping a good goal. Larry Laramie, Ricky Rae and Alan Crosse showed nice touches for the visitors.

Mamquam and Brackendale tied the contest 2-2. The home team completely commanded the first half and led 2-0 at half time on goals by Steven George and a lovely shot by Eddy Moody.

Turning around, Brackendale rejected their aerial passing of the first half, and finding it easier to progress with the ball

Gams scheduled to be played next Saturday, April 27, kick-off at 10 a.m., Bombers at Stawamus, Britannia at Brackendale, Mamquam at Woodfibre.

The officials and players of the Howe Sound Soccer League spent an enlightening three hours in the High School on Friday evening, April 19. The occasion was the visit of the B.C. Soccer Commission Coaching School officials, Tom Kelly (secretary) and Dan Kulai, lecturer on laws of the game.

For the first hour or so, the audience was enthralled viewing the wonderful coaching film "Witch's Kitchen of Soc-

Bride-elect honored

Friends of Miss Sandra Farrow honored her with a surprise miscellaneous shower at the United Church Hall on Tuesday, April 16.

An unusually large number of guests arrived to wish her happiness.

Spring-like streamers of green and white formed a pretty backdrop for the head table where the guest of honour was seated with her mother, Mrs. Ken Farrow, the groom's mother, Mrs. Len Olson, Miss Sally Allott and Miss Diane Elliott.

Assembled guests enjoyed a number of games supervised by Mrs. Don Behner and Mrs. Richard Munro after which Mrs. Munro presented the gifts to the bride.

Refreshments were served by Miss Pat Wilson and Miss Jocelyn Wetterstrom. Supervising the food were Mrs. John Hill, Mrs. Vic Hurford, Mrs. Don Breckenridge and Mrs. Gil Rande.

All the decorating was in the capable hands of Mrs. Jon Helgason Jr. and Mrs. Gary Hendrickson.

The Bombers came out on top in both games of the local derby at Squamish. The seniors edged the Canucks 3-2 after being down 2-0 at half time. Gordie Cameron with two and Derwin Hulse scored for the Bombers. Harold Stockman and David Bennett counted for Canucks.

Raymond MacDougall put the Canucks juniors on the score board for the first time this season. Though losing 3-1, his team showed up a lot better in this game. Jock Garrow, Chris Baldry and Lyle Goodall took charge of the Bomber goal scoring.

The Stawamus vs Britannia game was cancelled. On Easter Monday the Brackendale teams travelled to Pemberton, where the junior game ended in a 1-1 tie. Brent Pipe for Pemberton and Wayne Wesels were the marksmen.

A goal by Norm Ross sufficed to win it 1-0 for Brackendale in the senior match.

cer," featuring England vs Hungary, Santos (Brazil) vs Munich (Germany), and Benefica engaged in actual games.

The film camera took us behind the scenes in the training camp of the Milan club in Italy, to study the technique of their famous coach, who has now been engaged by the F.A. of England.

We also visited picturesque Santos, to watch wonder boy Pele and his team mates go through their paces on their own home ground. The English F.A. coaching school was shown and in all we had a good look at the very latest coaching and training methods adopted by the top club and international soccer pros in the world.

At the conclusion of the film showing, Mr. Kulai very ably conducted an interesting hour on laws of the game, using a blackboard for illustration purposes. It was certainly a worthwhile evening, and we are indebted to the B.C. Soccer Commission, Dan Kulai and Tom Kelly for bringing such valuable information to our doorstep.

Rivett - Farrow wedding Apr. 20

Carnations, red roses and white stalks decorated Squamish United Church for the wedding of Sandra Marlene Farrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Farrow, to Thomas Frederick Rivett, son of Mrs. Len Olson, Vancouver, and the late George Rivett of Squamish. The Rev. Norman Penrose conducted the double-ring ceremony, Saturday, April 20, at 7 p.m.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white nylon over taffeta full-length gown with train and carried white roses. Her shoulder-length veil was fastened by a pearl tiara and her only jewelry was a pearl drop necklace gift of the groom.

Her maid of honor was Miss Karen Halvorson dressed in Nile green nylon with matching shoes and carrying white carnations as were the bridesmaids, Miss Sally Allott and Miss Dianne Elliott. They wore pearl necklaces, gifts of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a pale green sheath dress and jacket with white accessories. The mother of the groom was dressed in a light blue sheath and jacket with blue shoes and white accessories.

Assisting the groom was best man Gary Hendrickson and ushers Harvey Trudeau and Mike Knox.

For her going away costume for a honeymoon in the United States, the bride wore a white linen suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The new couple will live in Squamish.

At the reception in the Elks Hall, R. M. Rennie was master of ceremonies and in compliance with the bride's wishes announced the eighth birthday of Brenda Long, who was in charge of the guest book, and the 46th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown of Brackendale, to whom the bride gave her wedding bouquet. The orchestra played a fanfare, Happy Birthday and the Anniversary Waltz for the occasion. C. V. Long proposed the toast to the bride.

The grandparents of the bride attended, Mr. and Mrs. Don France of Vancouver as did her cousin, Ted France of Prince Albert, Sask.

Other out of town guests included Mrs. Fred Morson,

KITCHEN KAPERS

—by PEG TINNEY

A Torte is often considered among the more 'special' and expensive desserts, and I gree that in most cases this is so.

However, I recently discovered this recipe for a Torte that is quick to make and easy on the pocket-book without losing any of its glamor and tastiness.

FRUIT COCKTAIL TORTE

- 1 can fruit cocktail
- 1 tsp soda
- 1 cup flour
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Break egg into bowl and beat with fork. Add fruit cocktail. Sift dry ingredients together four times and add to the egg and fruit cocktail. Mix brown sugar and nuts together and sprinkle over fruit cocktail mixture. Bake 45 minutes in 350 degree oven. Serve warm with whipped cream, hard sauce or lemon sauce. (I doubled the recipe and it worked beautifully.)
