

Council approves fourplexes in Highlands

PUBLIC MEETING ON REFERENDUM JULY 4

A public meeting to discuss the referendum being presented to the public will be held in the municipal hall council chambers at 8 p.m. on Thursday, July 3.

Members of council will be on hand to answer questions concerning the $489,600 referendum for the reconstruction of Second Ave., downtown drainage, recapping downtown roads, sidewalks construction, Brackendale drainage, cemetery paving and expansion, a dog pound and construction of more sports fields.

The referendum will go before the public on Saturday, July 5.

One down but still ten to go

The B.C. Railway has signed a tentative agreement with one labor union and is negotiating with three more as the July 31 contract expiry date for 11 rail unions draws nearer.

The government-owned railway has also initiated a hearing before the B.C. Labor Relations Board, asking it to clarify who should be representing five shopcraft unions.

The other two unions have yet to submit their demands. The company last week signed a tentative agreement with the Canadian Union of Transport Employees, Local 1, representing engineers.

A union spokesman said that the ratification vote will likely be completed before June 15. No terms have been released.

The LRB hearing was expected to be held on Monday to sort out the shopcraft situation. The five unions have bargained together in the past.

There are believed to be frictions within the association following the 46-day strike against the railway late last year. The plumbers' union, one of five involved, is presently attempting to sign up shopcraft employees from other unions, but this is not believed to be a prime cause of the disagreements.

Contract for strata units

Vern Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Babkowski representing Condo Services Ltd. on May 29 presented to council plans and a model for the 28 units in seven fourplexes to be built on Lot 244 in Garibaldi Highlands.

The development is intended to be on a strata title basis with common property and internal roads maintained by the Strata Corporation.

The proposed price range for the units is just under $40,000 each unit having approximately 600 feet per floor, two bedrooms and a den. There will be two parking spaces provided for each unit.

A land use contract is presently being prepared for presentation to council. The proposed plan has been approved by WEB Engineering with Condo Services being required to provide a 12 inch storm sewer drain to the street and an 8 inch connection per each catch basin for storm sewers.

As a condition of the Land Use Contract the internal roads would be maintained and cleared of snow by the Strata Corporation.

BCR has so far heard proposals from the Teamsters Union, the Brotherhood of Maintenance and Way Employees and the United Transportation Union, locals 1778 and 1923.

The UTU proposals were branded as "unreasonable" by the BCR spokesmen who said they amounted to more than a 100 percent increase.

UTU general chairman Glen Bowles said the demands were merely a starting point. "We certainly gave them a figure that knocked them off their chair. But the only reason we gave it is because they never want to get serious when it comes to money."

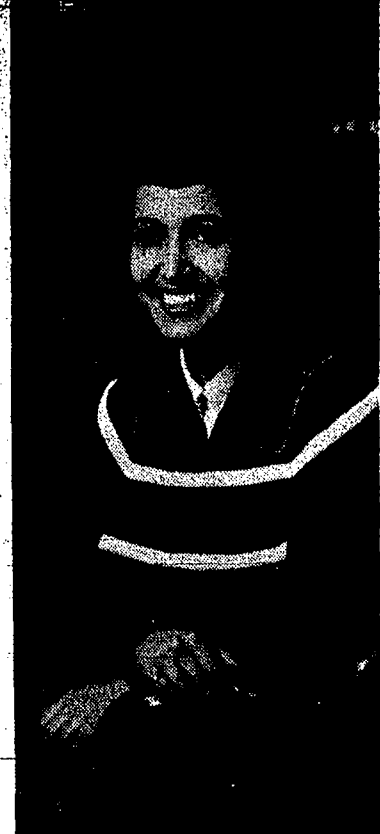

Both sides said the company will make a counter offer.

The two sides have agreed to change the current system of paying UTU's 450 conductor and brakemen by the mile to an hourly wage agreement. The company has already agreed in principle to paying overtime.

The union wants workers paid on the basis of a 160-hour month with overtime each day after eight hours. It is operating on the assumption that trainmen deserve an adequate income based on a 40-hour week.

BRACKENDALE PEEWEES, not content with winning the league championship, went on to win the tournament last Saturday. Girls' ball commissioner Tess Brennan presented them with the trophy at the end of the tournament. Front row, l. to r. are Shari Bishop, Anita Heidenreich, Denise Mensinger, Brenda Brewer, Wendy Halvorson and Stacey Rivett with Doreen Quinn's young daughter, the mascot of the team in front. In the back row, l. to r. are Tess Brennan, coach Doreen Quinn, Lynn Lovell, Carol Dent, Helen Doheny, Liz Brennan, Cheryl Linley, Colleen Quinn, Nancy Halvorson, Deidre Olander, Debbie Madryga and Shari Board. Missing are Sharon Wright, Lana Allan and Lorraine Macken.

KALLIE BILN who recently received her Bachelor of Education (Elementary) degree. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gurdev Singh Biln of Squamish.

Receives degree

Kallie Biln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gurdev Singh Biln of Squamish, recently graduated from the University of British Columbia with a Bachelor of Education (Elem.) degree.

She is a graduate of Howe Sound secondary school and plans to teach in the lower mainland.

Council to lease lots

Council decided last week to lease four lots south of the small boat harbour from Weldwood of Canada for $25 per year with the district to pay the taxes.

Additional lots north of the small boat harbour are still being negotiated. This is where the yacht club wishes to put some additional mooring and floats.

Alderman Jerwa said the yacht club wants some material from the area south of the small boat harbour removed from the water to make it more usable. Alderman Bryant pointed out that the area is the only spot where barges carry heavy equipment or material can be unloaded and another spot will have to be found if this one is deepened for the yacht club.

NSF cheques discussed at chamber meeting

Staff-Sgt. Bloxham spoke briefly to the Chamber of Commerce at the last meeting before the summer recess and dealt with the question of NSF cheques.

Bloxham said that his department will not touch cheques of under $25 because it is too costly and time consuming to do so.

He gave the chamber an interpretation of fraud and intent to defraud, adding that it was very difficult and time consuming to prove.

Some suggestions he made were that merchants should not accept post dated cheques, they are only promissory notes and could not be classed as fraudulent; to make sure the cheque was written out in front of you, ask for at least two pieces of identification preferably with the writer's signature on them, and get the employee or staff member who accepts the cheque to initial it. The cheque should also have the person's address and phone number on it for added identification.

Bloxham felt it would be better if the charges of false pretences were removed and all bad cheques were treated as a civil matter as it is very difficult to prove it is a criminal action. He said it only costs $6 to launch a civil suit and this is recoverable when the case is decided.

He also said that he feels sometimes the victim is responsible for creating the atmosphere for the crime as he is so anxious to make the sale he takes a chance.

"If he takes the chance and is aware that he is taking it, then the cheque passer is not wholly to blame," Bloxham added.

While he was at the meeting he was also asked about the traffic at the intersection of Highway 99 and Cleveland Avenue and his suggestion was that a light activated by a timer to operate the red and green lights at peak periods with the yellow light for warning at all other times, would be the best solution.

He was asked why he did not detail a man to the job at peak periods and said it was a question of manpower; when they were on traffic control they might be more urgently needed elsewhere.

A suggestion that a local person be hired to do the job brought the remark that this would be very costly.

Other matters dealt with by the chamber were tourism and it was reported that Carlings would again be assisting in the operation of the tourist booth. Maps of the area have been printed and are available to members of the chamber. They can call at the Times office to obtain these to give to tourists and others who ask for them.

A query about one way tickets on the Royal Hudson resulted in a request for these if it was possible and Joe Sidworth of the B.C. Railway said he would look into the matter and bring up an answer. However, he said the trains are practically always full when they leave Vancouver and it might be difficult to arrange for seats on the Royal Hudson.

Staff-Sgt. Bloxham distributed several pamphlets on bad cheques, home security tips and security measures for individuals.

28 units planned on 4.2 acre site

By ROSE TATLOW

Council on Tuesday night approved the construction of 28 units in seven buildings in a 4.2 acre site in the Garibaldi Highlands area north of the Boulevard. The seven buildings will each contain four living units and these will be sited to provide the maximum view and privacy for the occupants.

Developer Vern Johnson told council that the area allocated for this type of housing is large, over eight acres, cut in half by a large bluff which makes the development a pocket of multiple housing which will not affect the single family areas in the rest of the Highlands.

He also said a large park at the rear of the development would further ensure that it would not affect other housing in the area. However, he explained that even though the zoning would permit over 40 units the topography would not allow more than 36 but they felt the smaller number would be more suitable.

Johnson explained that cluster housing is used to keep costs of housing down and with the rapidly escalating costs of lands and services it is one way to keep the costs of dwellings at a reasonable price.

He said the area would be handled under the Strata Titles Act with a group managing the property and there would be regulations which all unit owners would have to observe.

These regulations would say there is to be no on street parking, maintenance costs of the property not immediately around the individual units would be portioned out among the owners as would snow removal and any other housekeeping costs including repainting of buildings, etc., as well as taxes.

Maintenance for things such as repainting would be prorated over a number of years with a small amount collected monthly or added to the monthly charge to cover the expected cost of the work when it was needed.

Johnson told council that the land would be left in a natural state as much as possible but sufficient trees left to maintain the pleasant park-like area which is so desirable.

There were no real objections at the public hearing which preceded the final reading of the bylaw authorizing the development. One resident of a nearby lot said all his doubts had been answered and he had no objections to the proposal.

Mayor D. D. Stewart told Johnson that he must be careful to ensure the development was a good one as this was the first which had been permitted in what was mainly a Residential I area.

Council also expressed concern about tax revenue from mobile homes and decided to ask the administrator to prepare a brief to present at the UBCM meeting on mobile home public housing in Surrey next month.

Belliveau said the present method of taxing units in mobile home parks is impractical as the assessment is done one year, notices not issued until the following year and by the time the tax date rolls around the person on the site a year ago can be long gone and one or two others used the space since he left.

This means that the district loses considerable tax revenue from mobile homes. The former method when the tax was collected monthly was much more satisfactory but this was discontinued as it meant the owners were not eligible for the homeowner grant.

Some suggestions were made that perhaps a six month tax could be assessed when the owner moved into a mobile home park and this could be returned in part, if he left before the tax date rolled around.

The administrator was to prepare a resolution to be presented at the Surrey meeting.

Squamish Day plans finalized

Plans for the annual Squamish Days celebration are being finalized with the finishing touches added to the big celebration which starts with the crowning of the Timber Queen on Thursday evening, July 31.

This will be followed by harness racing at Smokey Downs on Friday, Aug. 1; the big sports day, parade, loggers' breakfast and dances on Aug. 2; a rugby game on Sunday, Aug. 3, and on the annual midsummer holiday, Aug. 4, another racing day at Smokey Downs, the Brennan track in Brackendale.

The Squamish Lions Club will be in charge of the two-day racing events with exciting races planned for the harness enthusiasts.

At the annual Timber Queen Pageant out of town judges will select the Timber Queen and her princesses from the ten lovely girls vying for the honor.

They are Susan Acorn, Miss Royal Canadian Legion; Leigha Armstrong, Miss Elks and Royal Purple; Gina Boscarol, Miss Spencer Realty; Patti Burt, Miss Kalodon Upholstery; Violet Carlson, Miss Rotary; Sandi Cliff, Miss Chamber of Commerce; Cathy Gunn, Miss B.J.'s; Sandra Jackson, Miss Independent Logger; Martina Lynch, Miss Mamquam Fire Department; and Colleen Morgan, Miss Lions.

Highlights of the Loggers' Sports will be the return of Paul Mackenzie, the loggers' clown, the return of Rudy Bauer, the Flying Logger with his stunt flying and a lottery with three prizes, a first prize of $1,000, second prize of $250 and third prize of $150.

Unfortunately, Art Williams and his high tree act will not be a feature of this year's show as he is unable to come to Squamish.

The rugby game, scheduled for Sunday, will be between a Seattle team and a Burnaby team and will be played at the Centennial Field.

Squamish Day buttons are here and will be going on sale in local outlets in the near future.

MP to visit district

Jack Pearsall, MP for Coast-Chilcotin, will be visiting the riding early in July. He plans to be in Pemberton on the afternoon of June 30 and on July 1.

On July 2, Pearsall will be in Alta Lake where he has scheduled some meetings and on July 3 and 4 he will be visiting Squamish.

During his visit to Squamish he will be delighted to talk to any of his constituents and appointments can be made by calling his local secretary, Judy Schildhorn at 898-5175.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE awards were presented to B. Eckersley, M. Eckersley, Rory Sussóns, Bill and Hank Van Dinther, C. Ostergard and Randy Hanson. These were presented by Capt. Bob Jones and Cadet instructor Doug McCartney.

First annual inspection of Air Cadet Squadron

The first annual inspection of the 835 Chimo Squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Cadets was held in Howe Sound secondary school on Monday, June 16 with Major James Mar as the reviewing officer.

Also taking part in the event were members of several air cadet bands from Vancouver who provided the music for the inspection and presented a march past and band selections at the close of the inspection.

Also taking part in the inspection was Jerry Martin, chairman of the Liaison Committee of the Air Cadet League of British Columbia.

Just before the ceremonies opened a fly past by three members of the Squamish Flying Club, John Hurford, Chris Arnet and Elmer Poole, saluted the squadron on the occasion of its first inspection.

Major Mar inspected the squadron with Martin and Jim Brohman, chairman of the local sponsoring committee and then there was a march past with members of the squadron parading before Major Mar and giving the general salute.

Brohman introduced Major Mar who said he was happy to be reviewing the youngest squadron in Canada.

"When you see the benefits derived from belonging to a cadet squadron you will realize it has been worthwhile."

He complimented the parents, staff officers and civilian instructors for the progress of the squadron.

Martin of the Air Cadet League said it is not a military organization but provides aviation and citizenship training for boys and girls. Their aim is to learn, to advance and to serve and to this end there are many programs for the air cadets.

Commanding officer Bob Jones presented the achievement award to Joe Vriend and instructors Doug McCartney and Stan Fischer presented the perfect attendance awards to B. Eckersley, M. Eckersley, Rory Sussóns, Bill and Hank van Dinther, C. Ostergard and Randy Hanson.

Bill van Dinther received a special award for being the best at drill.

The Chimo Squadron consists of 42 members, 12 of them girls, and in charge of training are civilian instructors Frank Visentin and Gerry Chappell, squadron staff officer Bob Jung, cadet instructors Doug McCartney and Stan Fischer while Doug Blackwell who is leaving, was also a squadron officer. Capt. Bob Jones is the commanding officer.

Jim Brohman also thanked the sponsoring committee members including vice-chairman Don Patrick, incoming president of the Squamish Rotary Club, the sponsoring body; and George Furniss, Merv Foote, Bruce Burritt and Ian McCartney.

Brohman also thanked a number of distinguished guests including Mayor and Mrs. Stewart, Rotary president Bill Gosling and Mrs. Gosling, Dr. Thacker the medical officer for the squadron and Times editor Rose Tatlow.

Other visiting dignitaries were Master Warrant Officer Al Peters and Mrs. Cherie Hall, B.C. co-ordinator for the girl cadets.

Following the inspection the cadets and their guests enjoyed refreshments and the displays, set up in the cafeteria of work which the boys and girls had been doing or would be doing during the coming year.

Plant operator completes course

Roy Mihalick, operator of the sewer treatment plant in Squamish, has recently completed the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's national field study course on the operation of wastewater treatment plants.

Mihalick was presented with a Certificate of Completion by the California State University, Sacramento, which administers the program for the Environmental Protection Agency. Topics covered in the course included all phases of operation and maintenance of treatment plants.

Mihalick has also recently written the Canadian government certification examinations at UBC.

TWO BYLAWS GET THEIR FINAL READING

Two bylaws received final reading at a special meeting of council held on Tuesday, June 17.

The zoning bylaw to include areas in the Forest Zone in Residential 1 in the Garibaldi Highlands and the zoning amendment to permit Sunset Investments to build duplexes in the newly opened area in the Highlands.

The first three readings were also given to the Klomp Development Area bylaw in downtown Squamish.

Squamish Open set for weekend

The annual Squamish Open, the golf tournament held near the July 1 weekend, is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, June 28 and 29, with the competitors enjoying free play on the Friday preceding the event.

Committee chairman John Drenka says there will be prize money in excess of $2,000 with a $400 cash prize for the pro class.

A number of special prizes have been offered with the Bank of Nova Scotia offering a $250 watch for the person who comes closest to the pin on the 16th hole.

A special prize of a car for the golfer making the first hole in one on the eighth hole has been offered by Gordon Brothers and CP Air is offering a prize of a trip for two to Hawaii for anyone making a hole in one on any hole.

Drenka said there are dozens of prizes available as well as these special ones and it will be a tournament that will be long remembered.

To date there are 15 professional golfers from the lower mainland and the 108 golf course taking part in the event.

The tournament is well over subscribed long before the closing date with 212 players and a waiting list of 26 people in case any of the ones in the competition drop out.

The entry fee includes a special roast beef barbecue dinner on Saturday and hot roast beef sandwiches on Sunday.

Among the well known people who will be playing in the Squamish Open are Babe Pratt and his son Tracy.

St. David's School will remain open

St. David's School for Boys, threatened with closure due to increased costs and a lack of sufficient funds to pay the mortgage, will continue to operate for another year.

At a special meeting of parents held recently a new board was elected which contained more parents and the decision was to continue to operate the school even if the fees had to be raised.

An earlier estimate was that they might have to be raised as much as one thousand dollars per year to make up the deficit.

Mrs. Thelma Johnstone is the new chairman and there are ten parents on the new board, two of them, N. R. Barr and N. Candy, from Squamish.

The school last year had a total of 73 boys at closing and it is hoped that it will be able to operate at full capacity in the coming term.

Headmaster Christopher Goodwin, who was planning to leave the school when it was announced that it would close, may remain on if this can be arranged.

Goodwin told the graduating class and parents who attended the ceremonies that fees would be increased but he hoped it would not be too much.

Rescued from river

Two people were rescued from a log jam in the middle of the Squamish River on the afternoon of Sunday, June 15.

RCMP report they were informed at noon by fisheries personnel that a canoe had overturned in the Squamish River near Mile 28. The local Emergency Program people were notified and director Al Bird took a crew to the Upper Squamish five miles north of the power house where two people were stranded in the middle of the river.

They had launched their canoe some 500 feet upstream; it hit a log, tipped over and they reached the log jam where they built a fire.

The local crew were unable to reach them because the river was high and dangerous so an Okanagan Helicopter craft was called in and by 4 p.m. James Giouas, 31, and Ronald Lampis, 32, both of Vancouver, were brought out safely to the local airport.

Plankton require sunlight to survive.

Fish have neither eyelids or ears.

LIONS GATE BRIDGE CLOSURES FOR ONE NIGHT.

Next Sunday night, June 29, from 11:30 p.m. to Monday morning, June 30, at 6:00 a.m. See announcement on page 6.

Fire takes no holidays

With the summer vacation season beginning many people will be leaving for the summer holidays that they have been planning for many weeks.

The members of the Squamish Fire Department and Fire Chief Doug Orser hope they will have an enjoyable holiday and return safely. In order to ensure this they suggest that you take a few precautions to make sure that your home is fire safe.

They recommend that you:

- Remove accumulations of combustibles by taking them to the dump.
- Cut long grass or weeds which may be near the house.
- Make sure all flammable liquids are properly stored.
- Shut off all electrical appliances.
- If you leave a light burning, make sure the fixture is in proper working order and in excellent condition; and make sure that the bulb is protected from combustibles.

On your holiday there are two investments that you can make that may save your vacation or your life: a small first aid kit and a U.L. listed and approved fire extinguisher.

If you own a camper, trailer or mobile home, make sure that your propane appliances, piping and tanks are in A-1 condition. Check all valves and fittings with a soapy mixture to detect leaks.

If you are buying or renting a unit insist on one bearing the blue provincial government seal for compressed gas systems.

- Do be careful with campfires, be sure to obtain the necessary permits.
- Do keep your fire extinguisher handy and completely charged.
- Do keep all camp stove fuel and gasoline in approved metal containers.
- Don't light flammable liquid camping appliances inside tents. Be sure to check these appliances before you go on holiday.

Be sure to instruct your whole family on fire hazards and emergency firefighting and bring them all back alive!

Tax deadline on July 4

Don't forget the deadline for paying the 1975 taxes is Friday, July 4. After that date a penalty will be charged.

This deadline also covers the payment of water and garbage rates which are due on the same day.

If you qualify for the home owner's grant be sure to fill in your tax form even if you do not pay your taxes before the due date.

Canada's forests products are worth three billion dollars annually.

First graduating class at St. David's School for Boys

The first graduating class from St. David's School for Boys received diplomas on Saturday, June 21 when the school held its graduation exercises. There were seven boys: Franklin Boyd, Christopher Dawkins, Bruce Guy, David Kilpatrick, Wallace Leung, Daniel Obara and Sherman Wong, in the graduating class.

It was also the awards day and these were presented by James Hogan, former chairman of the board, and Mrs. Hogan. The diplomas were presented by Frank Beinder who was also the guest speaker.

Headmaster Chris Goodwin touched on some of the events of the past year and improvements which have been made to the school. These include the remodelling and renovation of the former Arts Centre to provide a science lab, a multimedia area and classrooms.

He also mentioned that the school opened last fall with 70 pupils and, at closing, had an enrollment of 73 pupils. He touched on the danger of closing and said this had been averted by the action of the parents who had volunteered to see it was kept open.

During the year they had invited guest speakers in many fields to their Thursday night dinners; in September seven boys received their Duke of Edinburgh bronze awards and a team had entered the soccer league in Squamish.

Skiing at both Whistler and Rainbow was an active school sport and the team won the meet against Brentwood and St. Georges. They also played basketball and floor hockey against local teams but found themselves outmatched. The active outdoor program consisted of a number of camps, hiking, canoeing, climbing and kayaking.

Goodwin also said the new multi-media centre had provided for a number of interesting studies.

Guest speaker Frank Beinder, executive director of the B.C. College Association and former president of the B.C.S.T.A., told the students that a revolution was in progress in the world and the students of today must set the goals and create the climate for change.

"The future is frighteningly complex," he said, "and the need is to perceive the problems and confront them in a positive way."

He pointed out that there have been major social upheavals in the past and that while today involvement is seen as the cure-all for the world's woes he said it depended on what kind of involvement.

"To be useful involvement must be objective and purposeful. Involvement is knowing what goes on around us."

Beinder said that humanity has come a long way since it first discovered fire many millennia ago; men don't slave for 16 hours a day for a pittance, there is no longer slavery and there is an awakening of social justice. But he said the philosophy which has bestowed so many benefits on us has no morals.

Gordon Weberg installed as new president of Lions Club

Gordon Weberg was installed as president of the Squamish Lions Club at the annual dinner in the Mira Hotel on Friday, June 20. Installing officers were Zone chairman Joe Thornley of West Vancouver and district governor Ed Porter.

Installed along with the new president were vice president Larry Elchuk, treasurer Colin Munn, secretary Bob Kuhn, Lion tamer Ken Ramus, tail twister Stan Fischer, and one-year directors Steve Rizun, Gordon Crane and Pete Calverly. Also installed was past president Bob Blomster.

Before installing the officers, Joe Thornley spoke on the club and its work and introduced Mark Johnson who will be the new zone chairman and who comes from North Vancouver. Thornley was ecstatic about the trip on the Royal Hudson which the crippled children had enjoyed and thanked the Squamish Club for its co-operation.

"When I think of things like the Royal Hudson trip I am impressed," he said. "To see 2 1/2 to three carloads of crippled children enjoying an outing like that; to see cars and vans lined up at Squamish to transport them to the sports grounds to see a mini loggers show and to see those men turn out to put on a show for a bunch of youngsters, makes a great day!"

He said the Squamish Club was one of the first to contribute to CARE and added that on the zone level he had never asked the club for anything which it did not give.

District 19A governor Ed Porter said that he was pleased to see his district won five awards in the past year. He was also pleased to see that all the clubs had contributed to the district Lions float which has been used to publicize Lionism.

In making his year's report, retiring president Bob Blomster touched on the highlights of the year; sponsorship of a Timber Queen who went on to become Miss PNE, assisting at the annual Loggers Sports events, two record blood donor clinics, two Lions Club members attended a conference in San Francisco, aiding the needy with a Christmas hamper, three members attending the Prince George conference, donating equipment to Brackendale and Mamquam schools and funds to the Lions International.

He also mentioned collecting 250 pairs of glasses for people in underdeveloped countries, the Easter Seal campaign which raised over $1,200, presentation of a gift to retiring mayor Pat Brennan, helping with the visit of the crippled children to Squamish, donation of a typewriter to the library, donation of three picnic tables to the museum, selling carnations for Mothers' Day and the operation of two ambulances until they were taken over by the government.

During the evening, Bob Kuhn received the membership award for January to March, and a ten-year attendance pin was presented to Steve Rizun.

New members Glenn Rustad and Fred McNeill, sponsored by Gordon Weberg and Ken Ramus, were inducted into the club by Joe Thornley who stressed the international aspect of Lionism. He pointed that the Lions are held together by two words, "We Serve!"

During the evening, Steve and Hilda Rizun and Bob and Olga Kuhn, who were celebrating their wedding anniversaries, were congratulated and Bob Blomster presented each of the women with a bouquet. Also receiving bouquets were Doreen Ramus for the work she and Ken did for Lionism, to Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Thornley, to the incoming president's wife, Mary Weberg and to his wife, Lisa Rafn.

Hilda Rizun presented her bouquet to the Miss Lions candidate, Colleen Morgan, who was introduced to the gathering.

Among the more attractive items are the hand embroidered cotton dresses in a stretch material from Turkey, dresses, scarves and men's shirts from the Philippines and some attractive dress lengths.

There are belts and bags from Turkey, in colorful weaving; dancing spoons from Turkey and mother of pearl coasters, wooden ware and evening bags from the Philippines along with their pineapple cloth handkerchiefs and scarves.

Canadian items are notes and wall plaques, stationary, carvings, candles and china.

Ramsay also said they have a collection of jade and amethyst jewelry which was not yet on display.

He also said they will have catalogues which will list articles which can be imported if one wishes to get them.

The shop, which opened on Tuesday, will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and will carry the items listed above.

Golf Club Mens Championship

Last weekend, 60 golfers participated in this year's men's championship. The overall winner was the course because very few golfers managed to produce net sub-par scores. This makes the prospect of 216 golfers from all over B.C. tackling the course this weekend in the Squamish Open Tournament exciting, and with the help of some nice weather, a very pleasant weekend is anticipated.

The actual winner of the club championship was C. Maxwell, whose score over two days of 151 (72-79) gave him a comfortable margin of eight strokes over his nearest rival, J. Depiesse at 159 (80-79). Third was A. Donaldson at 161, and fourth was C. Coltart at 162, a very commendable performance for an 11 handicap golfer.

Net prizes were awarded as follows: 0-11 handicap group: R. Boudreau, L. Smith; 12-18 handicap group: J. Drenka, H. Hurford; 19 and over handicap group: L. Richards, I. Sorgan.

Additional prizes were won by W. Myles, E. Waugh, L. Plunkett.

Little crime in district

Several small thefts have been reported in the municipality in the past week. John Ukrainetz reported that his car had been broken into while in the Mira Hotel parking lot and a number of items stolen.

On June 17 an employee of the IGA reported that some sports clothes had been stolen from the staff washroom.

On June 18 Fred Boedecker reported that someone had broken into his work shop and stolen a 15 speed Gitane bicycle.

Thefts of papers from the city papers newsstands have been reported and the local agent said this is classed as theft if papers are taken and no coins deposited.

MR. AND MRS. LEONARD SPRAGUE

Laurie McRae wears period gown

White and yellow butterfly mums in vases were placed on the altar dedicated in memory of the bride's great grandmother Laura Galbraith for the Saturday night wedding of Laurie Anne McRae and Leonard Paul Sprague at 7 p.m. on June 21.

Rev. A.E.W. Godwin heard the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus McRae of Squamish and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sprague of Ladner exchange vows and Mrs. E. L. Kristianson played the organ for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose a gown of imported nylon net and taffeta with the long sleeved fitted bodice featuring a high neckline. Appliqued roses and lily of the valley in French lace in panels on the bodice and down the sleeves added to the custom look and tiny rows of lace flowers adorned the stand up collar and cuffs, while white satin ribbon was threaded through the waist.

Three panels of applique lace roses and lily of the valley fell from the waist to the hem of the gown and the train was trimmed with the same lace. A Juliet cap of lace flowers and seed

Comings and Goings

At the Sunday morning service on June 15, Mrs. Art Lloyd and her daughter Barbara were each presented with a plaque showing a picture of the Squamish United Church. Mr. Lloyd, who came from Vernon to attend Barbara's graduation, was also at church along with his mother from Burnaby. Mrs. Lloyd and the three younger children will be leaving for Vernon early in July; their eldest, Donald, is living in Burnaby.

By the time a man can read a woman like a book he is too old to start a library.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steeves is her daughter Mrs. Brenda Coombe of Oxfordshire. The visitor will be seeing much of the lower mainland during her month's stay here.

Mr. Ed Olander has once more headed for the north where he will spend the summer and early autumn with a tugboat at the mouth of the Mackenzie River.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hansen are enjoying a visit from his sister, Mrs. Dagny Rasmussen of Sweden. Mrs. Rasmussen plans to see some of B.C. and take in a trip to San Francisco during her four to five week stay.

Debbie Carroll wed at St. John's

Spring blossoms including lupins and mock orange were used to decorate the Church of St. John the Divine for the wedding of Deborah Jane Carroll and Maurice Alexander Richard on Saturday, June 14 at 6 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Carroll of Squamish and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard of Trail.

Rev. A. E. W. Godwin heard the young couple exchange their vows.

The bride chose floor length white polyester satin gown with long sleeves; the fitted bodice featuring a square neckline trimmed with lace. Lace also trimmed the cuffs on the long sleeves and the raised waistline of the gown. The A lined gored skirt swept into a shaped back hemline forming a self train, which was also edged in lace.

The shoulder length veil fell from a crown of matching lace set with small white pearls. Her sole items of jewelry were a string of pearls and pearl earrings, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

Her attendants, Kathy Harrison as maid of honor and Cathy Rhodes as bridesmaid were dressed alike in floor length gowns of light blue polyester knit sparkled with textured white pin dots and set off with a white collar and bow. Blue picture hats completed their ensemble and they carried bouquets of pink daisies.

Carol Clarke, a cousin of the bride, as flower girl, wore a white floor length polyester knit sparkled with textured white

New owners for pizza restaurant

The Hot Rod Pizza restaurant has changed hands and will be operating under the new name of the Cottonwood Inn. The restaurant, on Carson Place at Government Road, was sold by Stu Lemcke to Milton Brown and associates.

Martha Brown says they have been in the restaurant business before, operating one in Winnipeg, Manitoba, and Mrs. Brown had training in the Safeway bakeries. She cooked at the Squamish Cafe for two years and also at the Woodfibre cafeteria.

Milton has cooked in the family restaurant and also on the Canadian National trains. They plan to be open from 6

Police were happy to report that there were no injury accidents during the week of June 16 to June 21. This is an excellent report and hopefully will be continued into the summer.

Loved the story about the minister who had only two files in his cabinet, one marked Sacred and the other Top Sacred!

Anyone seeing Murray Gallaher drive his car over those three or four cars at the demolition derby last Sunday must have thought he had more nerve than sense. I know you couldn't pay me to do it.

But they claim that the drivers are perfectly safe as they are all strapped in and can't be hurt. But I don't think I'd even like to try competing in one of those events.

Looks exciting from the sidelines though and there are a lot of people interested in them judging by the number who sat around in the chilly wind and light rain to watch the events.

One spectator at the burning of the mortgage at the manse last Sunday was heard to mutter to a bystander as the flames and smoke rose in the air, "Would you call that Holy Smoke?"

This really is my week for corny jokes and puns but after the return of "Pi" Campbell, a visit to a newspaper convention and a school board meeting there just had to be a number of them.

First the one from the school board where one trustee wanted to know how you told the difference between a boys' gym and a girls' gym and the answer was that the only way you could tell was by the equipment in them!

Then there was the story about the Ukrainian and the Texan who were talking about their properties. The Ukrainian said he had a farm near Winnipeg and had four sections in wheat.

"Pooh!" said the Texan, "our farm is so large I can get in the car in the morning and drive all day without leaving my property."

"Oh," said the Ukrainian, "I had one of those cars once too!"

And the third story was overheard in the staid Victoria Club in Victoria where a discussion on the metric conversion was taking place. One stately, and very English gentleman said pontifically, "If the Lord had meant us to use Celsius there would have been only ten disciples!"

Happiness at our house last week was the news that granddaughter Cyndy Mason who graduated from Prince George senior secondary school on Friday 13th of June (incidentally she wondered why they picked Friday the 13th, cause it's tough enough to graduate without having that added to it) was the recipient of the City of Prince George $500 scholarship, a $100 scholarship for being the top academic student in the graduating class and the Valentine scholarship.

Later in the week she received one of the four $500 Real Estate Board scholarships offered by Caledonia College!

Her dad said he didn't have a button left on any of his shirts; they had all popped with pride!

A new experience is slated for tonight when, along with several other local people, I shall be one of the judges at the Miss Pemberton contest. Never tried anything like that before but it should be fun.

Added attractions are a chicken barbecue and a hootenanny, so it promises to be an interesting evening.

Julie Thompson dropped in last week to explain the aims of the program she is conducting this summer along with Rob Beck.

The play therapy program is for children of elementary school age and the goal is to assist the children in developing social skills through small group discussions, role playing, educational films, and varied recreational and art activities.

Although the Mental Health Centre is sponsoring this program the children will by no means be undergoing therapy. Rather the emphasis will be on an understanding of human behaviour (own and others) as it affects social relationships with peers. Moreover, groups will most often be meeting outdoors.

SCA plans for busy summer

At last week's meeting of Branch No. 70 of the Squamish Senior Citizens Association, plans were finalized for two forthcoming events.

On July 15 the Oldtimers Picnic will be held in Stanley Park. Mrs. Martin Bochon of North Vancouver and Mrs. Nellie Dixon and Mrs. B. E. Valde of Vancouver will contact as many former residents as possible and advise them of the event. As in the past it will be held in the covered picnic area near the train. A bus will be leaving here at 10 a.m. and returning at approximately 4 p.m. Local members are asked to contact friends who have moved away and invite them to join with old friends. Coffee, tea, milk and sugar (if available) will be provided but bring your own lunch.

On Aug. 27 the branch will sponsor the annual trip to the PNE where there will be an opportunity to attend the Tattoo in the Coliseum. Watch for further announcements in regard to tickets.

A study is to be made of ways to obtain grants for the purpose of building an activity centre.

Mrs. G. S. Clarke gave her report on the annual convention with additional comments from Mrs. Kay Smith, Mrs. Rose Lampert, Mrs. Jean Ridgley and George Nesbitt.

Following the business meeting Mr. Wayne Boyd showed slides of the trip to Russia taken by him and Nick Candy in April of this year.

Those shown covered the city of Kiev and some of the southern area near the Black Sea. It was amazing to note how many monasteries and churches are looked upon as historical monuments.

Boyd commented on the prevalence of apartments for housing; in one pictured section of Kiev accommodation for 400,000 people could be seen. Interesting, too, in view of present studies in B.C. was the use of hydrofoils for river travel. Hotels are adequate although rooms were small as were bathrooms.

Technologically the Russians are still behind us; most of the trucks and heavy duty machinery is of one type, and smaller than ours. Much work is still done by hand; one probable reason for no sign of welfare or unemployment.

The Russian people are justly proud of the tremendous advances made in education since the revolution. Much of the country scenery resembled the plateaus of British Columbia.

At a later date the seniors will welcome a showing of slides of the second half of Boyd's trip.

Demolition Derby draws crowds

Despite the cold wind and rain which started to fall before the end of the meet, the second demolition derby of the year drew a large number of people. Bob Cameron of Richmond won the main event with Frank Van Hued of Vancouver in second place and third place went to Bill Chapman of Squamish. The Celebrity Event which included the mayor and several local businessmen was won by Cecil Van Sickle, representing a local firm with Dan Olpeni of the Squamish Hotel in second place. Third place went to John Leask. In this event Cst. Marv Hodges was rammed by Chuck Rattray near the beginning and spent the rest of the time on the bank at the side of the grounds while Mayor Stewart got bogged down in the middle of the grounds and couldn't go anywhere. The first heat was won by Jim Reed of Squamish with Bob Taylor of Vancouver in second place and Bob Hollingsworth, Coquitlam in third place. In the second heat Frank Van Hued was first, Paul Lambert of Coquitlam second, and Bob Cameron of Richmond third. Ben Skilhorn of Squamish won the third heat with Bill Chapman of Squamish in second place and Pat Power of Vancouver third. The best appearing car was Bob Cameron's Yabba Dabba Doo, a take-off on the Flintstones. Bill Versluis of Squamish was the winner of the grudge match. An interesting show was put on by Murray Gallagher who tried the triple decker dive bomb event but failed, but did manage to drive over several cars in several tries. Race chairman Ron Koenders says Gallagher will attempt the triple-decker event at the next derby to be held on Sunday, July 20, starting at 1 p.m. and this will be the first event on the program. Koenders said it was the best meet yet with 17 trophies presented to the winners. He said there will be considerable work done on the grounds in preparation for the next derby and he, specially thanked all those who had worked on the grounds, including Bill Chapman who had graded them.

VERNA MAKELA LANDS 34 1/2 POUND SALMON

Verna Makela of Britannia Beach was the lucky angler on Monday night when she caught a 34 1/2 pound salmon at Britannia Beach. She was using a flasher and herring and said the big fish could be a twin to the one she caught four years ago in the same place. "Since that time I haven't been so lucky," she told the Times, "and last year I told my husband I was going to quit and he'd have to get a new fishing partner unless I caught another one." With the high price of food, Mrs. Makela is going to find the big fish will help in keeping down her bills.

Lacrosse News

Four games were played by the Bantam Girls this week, two of which were won by default by Richmond and White Rock not showing. Official goals were scored by Ione Behner and Pat Wallace.

On Saturday, June 21, the Squamish Hunters travelled to Griffin Box in North Vancouver to meet Mt. Seymour. The boys returned home victorious with a 13-0 win.

The girls met South Burnaby on Saturday and won with a score of 6-1. Goals were scored by Joy Joseph, Barb BiHy, Tracy Willgress, Shirley Lewis and Anne Marie Staats, with assists coming from Mavis Lewis, Tracy and Francine Lewis.

George Jacobs led the scoring with four goals and an assist, with Paul Watson scoring three goals, Brian Conn two, and single goals were added by Don Sweeney, Jamie Raymond, Davie James and John Selby. The shutout was Kevin Crowston's fourth of the season.

On Sunday, June 22, Capilano met the Hunters at the Squamish Box and defeated Hunters by a 5-2 score.

It was a well played game and the score was tied until less than five minutes remaining when Capilano broke through with three quick goals. Jamie Raymond and Roy Crowley scored for Squamish.

This is the prime objective of any team sport and the Squamish Lionettes are playing a good passing and checking game, their defensive play is terrific, Joy Joseph and Shirley Lewis are very able teachers for the whole defensive lines. The Lionettes are now in good standing for first place in their league.

Hunters' record to date is nine wins and four losses. Their last home game of the season is Thursday, July 3 at 7:15 p.m.

The Sons of Norway had two losses over the weekend when they played both games away from home against North Van Credit Union, losing their first game 5-6 on June 21 and then 4-7 on June 22.

For the total of the two games, Glen Antosh scored three goals, Doug Boyd four and Pat Sweeney and Peter Mortensen with one each. Assists went to Glen Antosh with three and Pat Sweeney and B. Delikatney with one each.

The boys were billeted overnight in North Van where they had a great time, and the North Van parents said they were well mannered and quite enjoyed them.

The Intermediate "B" team played the best two games of the year in Burnaby and Delta. We lost to Burnaby 12-7, but we played a fantastic game. Shots on goal were 35 for us and 58 for them, giving Mike McPhillamey his best and best game yet. Tom Johnstone scored four, Larry Smith one, Dennis Lewis one, and Gary Halvorson one. Assists went to Tom Johnstone, Randy Lewis, Robin Drygas, Gary Halvorson and Guy Thompson.

Our game in Delta was one I expected to lose, but my men came up with a surprising win after a great game. Delta beat us 18-8 in the first game, this time it was 12-10 for us. Great passing, good defence, and playing the box and triangle the way it should be played helped greatly. Larry Smith scored one, Kelly Clausen one, Guy Thompson two, Gary Halvorson three, Tom Johnstone three and Peter Hickli one. Assist went to Mike McPhillamey three, Larry Smith two, Kelly Clausen one, Robin Drygas two, Gary Halvorson two and Tom Johnstone two. Two Midget players assisted us in this game, Barry Pigeon scoring a goal and getting an assist, and Brian Valleau getting an assist.

Thanks men, for doing a great job. Intermediate Bs are in West Van on Thursday playing against Surrey and if we play as well as we did Sunday, we can beat them too.

Last week, Squamish elementary school boys (Grade 6) attended the Outdoors School at Pemberton and so four games had to be cancelled. ## IS PROPERTY SELLING?

That's a question we are asked almost every day. Frankly, the way a property "moves" when it's offered for sale depends a lot on how it's handled. For this reason, when you're buying or selling, we suggest you give us a call. We are old enough to be experienced . . . young enough to be aggressive . . . large enough to be efficient . . . and small enough to be personalized.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Chang last week were old friends, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wallin from Princeton, West Virginia.

Celebrating wedding anniversaries this week are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rizun, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. John Drenka, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. C. "Hank" Tatlow.

Miss Louise Fraboni, now residing in Port McNeill was a visitor here last weekend, staying with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Vass and seeing old friends.

Leaving for the land of "polar bears and ice" last Sunday was Ed Olander and Alf Wilkinson. They will be working for an oil company in the Arctic until sometime in October. Last year Ed sent a couple of interesting articles on his work and adventures and he promises to keep in touch this year.

On the birthday list this week are Shelli Gibson, Lynn Hodgson, Shelley Olson, Donald Engerdaht, Susan Bass, Steve Sellers, Shelli Sherman, Mrs. A. E. Godwin, Casey Weeks, Dougie Allan, Jannette Nitschke, June Halvorson, John Archer, Harry McCulloch, Larina Bouwman, Patsy Hopkinson and Robin Hurren.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Essex are pleased to have her sister, Mrs. Martha Grylls from Biggar, Sask., visiting for a few days.

The Royal Hudson brings interesting visitors to town each run. The Standard Council of Canada hosted a luncheon at the Chieftain Hotel on June 18 for 30 members of the Pacific Area Standards Congress meeting in Vancouver for the week. President of the Canadian Council is Jean P. Carriere from Montreal.

Mr. Carriere is a retired brigadier general from the Canadian Army and was the man responsible for the famed "Ripple Rock" explosion project in July 1957. Also accompanying him was a retired vice admiral from the navy. I meekly mumbled that I was a retired "corporal" from the RCAF!

Visiting Ireland, especially Belfast can be a nerve wracking experience. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell and son Sonny made their first trip back to their native land in over 20 years earlier this month. They had a wonderful visit with relatives and old friends but Mrs. Campbell said each time they were in the downtown area of Belfast they were searched before entering stores, bars, restaurants, etc. She said it was frightening seeing armed soldiers on the streets and the situation is such that one almost has to be there to realize the full impact of the country's turmoil. They were happy to set foot back on Canadian soil.

Visiting her mother in Lloydminster, Saskatchewan this week is Mrs. George Mundy.

I don't profess to know anything about cards let alone bridge but Mrs. Eileen Rennie related this little story to me. Four ladies including herself, Vera Moule, Dot Farquharson and Alta Aldridge have been playing bridge together every Wednesday for over 20 years. At the final get-together until September at Alta's home on June 18 and after the cards were shuffled, cut and dealt, an excited Vera Moule ended up with "13 hearts". This has never happened to any of them in all these years and apparently happens only once in a lifetime!

Guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Wayne MacKenzie and family last week was Mrs. MacKenzie's father, Mr. Easton from Castlegar and his sister, Miss Mary Easton from Fraserburgh, Scotland. She has enjoyed her visit to Canada especially B.C. as she has been able to visit many areas of the province.

Remember — Canada Week, June 24 to July 1. The theme "Canada - Give it a hug" and let's all be proud to be Canadians!

June 24 to July 1 has been officially proclaimed Canada Week by Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and all provincial premiers as a special week for Canadians from coast to coast. During this week which leads up to Canada's national holiday (we're 108 years old), hundreds of thousands of Canadians will participate in a multitude of activities — some educational but all entertaining.

The Elks Lodge and Royal Purple Lodge plan a big Kids' Day on July 1 complete with a parade, sports, contests, etc. It would be nice if the whole town would get behind these lodges and supported them during our national holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boni, now residents of Winnipeg are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Watt and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boni, Sr. Jane and Paul are also pleased to see her aunt, Mrs. E. Peacock and children visiting from Scotland.

School holidays started today and a big YIPEE was heard throughout the school corridors. When it gets to this time of year, kids, teachers and even mothers are happy when this day finally arrives. A happy and fun filled summer is wished to all students and teachers and hang in there mother! Motorists, please drive with just a little more care and attention during these long summer days.

Alison Murray and Brenda Tichauer attended a Bridge Tournament in Seattle at the end of May and besides having a great time, they came away with a third place finish in their section.

The special run made by the Royal Hudson last week, June 17, brought to town over 550 Western Teamster delegates and their families. It was quite a mixed gathering as there were representatives from 11 states and provinces and they all seemed in a gay holiday mood. The Chieftain Hotel was a busy place serving a smorgasbord luncheon to this large group. The Teamsters were holding a five-day convention in Vancouver.

Eat your heart out kids — those lucky youngsters in the United States start their annual summer vacations the first week in June!

Special get well wishes to little Denise Fairhurst who has been a patient in the Children's Hospital in Vancouver for the past ten days.

Federal MP Jack Pearsall is planning another visit to Squamish on July 3 and 4. If you wish to make an appointment to see him, please call his constituency representative Judy Schildhorn at 898-5175. Mrs. Schildhorn plans an informal "coffee hour" from 8-10 p.m. on July 3 if anyone cares to drop in.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sandy McKenzie last week were his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs.

The Squamish Times — Thursday, June 26, 1975 — Page 13

Robert McKenzie from Camrose, Alberta. Welcoming his new sister home was Robert. Visitors in Squamish at this special time are proud grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Zwanenburgh from Holland. Congrats also to grandmother Mrs. Kate Garrett in Hull, England, grandfather John Garrett in Mica Creek, B.C., great grandfather Walter Garrett of Wheatland, Manitoba, and to 95 year old great great grandmother Mrs. Bassey of Hubbard, Saskatchewan.

The next Swap Meet is scheduled for Sunday, July 6 in Field's parking lot. The sponsors are the Rebel Radio Club and they hope for a good turnout from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. For further information please contact Fred Laplante at 898-5543 or Georgina Pinchbeck at 892-5423.

Stork Story GARRETT — Mr. and Mrs. Michael Garrett are pleased to announce the arrival of their daughter, Elizabeth, Daniella Jennifer, born in the Squamish General Hospital on June 16.

When Georgina Pinchbeck was in Calgary attending the Arrex convention she also visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. McGillivray.

Cheryl Trudeau wed

St. John's Anglican Church was decorated with red roses and lupins and yellow and purple bows for the wedding June 13 of Cheryl Louise Trudeau of Squamish to Murray Donald McCorrigan of Mafeking, Manitoba.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Godwin.

The bride wore a yellow satin dress with train trimmed in white lace and a white picture hat with yellow velvet ribbon. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow orchids. For "something old" Cheryl wore Darja Shaw's grandmother's black Alaska necklace and for "something blue" a blue garter.

The bride's attendants were Carol Lehman, Darla Shaw and Jackie Petroff. They wore empire waist dresses of mauve jersey trimmed with purple velvet ribbon and white picture hats with purple ribbon. Their flowers were yellow daisies and purple carnations. Flower girl Kim Petroff wore the same style dress as the other attendants and carried large yellow mums made into a "bunny".

Best man was the brother of the groom, Gordie McCorrigan, and ushers were Steve Provincial and Perreau Essiambka.

The bride was given away by her brother, Rene.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bev Trudeau wore a short sleeved full length empire waist dress in pale blue fortrel with a white rose corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Lily Hanson, wore a long mauve and white voile dress with long sleeves and a white corsage.

Toastmaster for the reception at the Chieftain Hotel was Don Patrick and the toast to the bride was given by Jim Elliott.

Out of town guests were Duane Drenka, Mrs. Jean Drenka, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Ling and Randy and Mrs. L. Sawchuck.

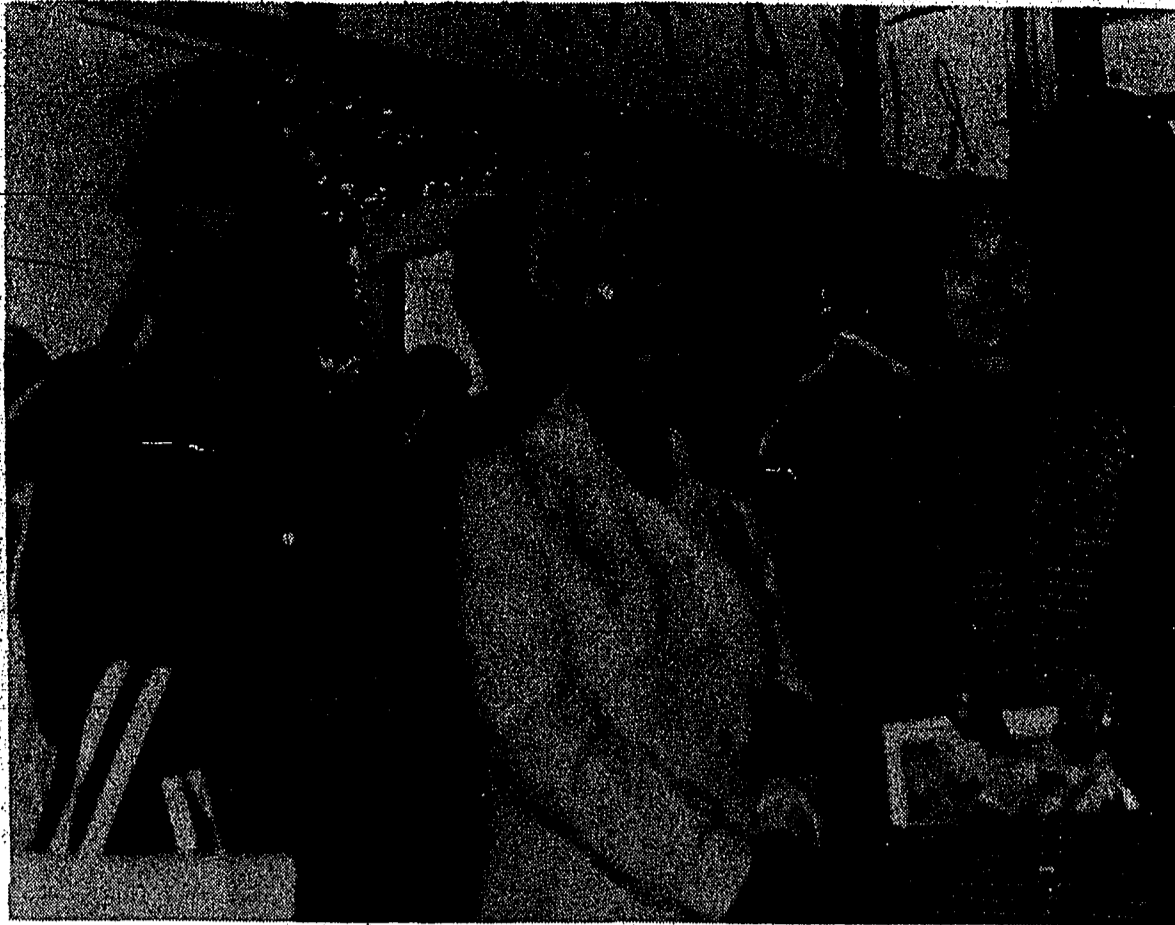

For their honeymoon the couple have gone to Manitoba where they will visit the groom's family. The bride's going away outfit was a pale blue jersey two-piece dress worn with a yellow orchid corsage.

The bride and groom will live in Squamish.

Patricia McNair engagement announced

Mr. and Mrs. Allan McNair of Britannia Beach are very happy to announce the engagement of their daughter Patricia to Donald Setter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robert Setter of Calgary, Alta.

The wedding will take place in December at St. Margaret's Church in Vancouver.

THESE LADIES were among the over 550 persons arriving at Chieftain Hotel for luncheon on June 17 after disembarking from the Royal Hudson. Their husbands were delegates to the Western Conference of Teamsters held in Vancouver last week.

United Church burns mortgage

It was a gala occasion on Sunday afternoon when members of the congregation of the Squamish United Church gathered at the manse to officially burn the mortgage and to present farewell gifts to Rev. and Mrs. Wayne MacKenzie who will be leaving for a new post in Revelstoke.

Wayne Mitchell announced that the "Talent Money" drive had raised enough money to more than pay the balance of the mortgage which amounted to $1,116. He credited the hard work during Rev. MacKenzie's term as pastor with the lifting of the mortgage.

Mitchell also said that the loggers who had selectively logged the manse grounds and raised a large portion of the money should also be credited with their assistance. It was this which sparked the desire to raise the rest of the money and finally pay it off.

Rev. MacKenzie said that much of the credit should be given to Mrs. Eileen Kyle whose gift of the manse at a special price had made much of this possible.

The congregation enjoyed a pleasant buffet luncheon, some singing and guitar music by Terry Flury and Suzanne Rudy and Mrs. MacKenzie was presented with a corsage before the mortgage was officially burned.

Following that ceremony Mrs. MacKenzie was presented with a friendship quilt with the names of members of the UCW embroidered on squares and with a beautiful knitted coat. Ellen Harley made the presentations.

Rev. MacKenzie received a piece of granite mounted on a wooden square, a work of local craftsmen, a Sony tape recorder and an envelope containing a special gift to mark his years of service to Squamish and the church.

Fortunately the rain which had been threatening all day, held off until the ceremonies were finished.

Laurie McRae shower

Streamers of white and tangerine falling from a gay summer parasol formed a charming backdrop to the head table at the bridal shower honoring Miss Laurie McRae at the CE Centre last Wednesday evening.

Roses and bouquets of summer flowers decorated the tables; the head table had two added attractions, a lovely cake in honor of the occasion and a large candle on which were inscribed the words of the wedding invitations.

Seated at the head table with the bride-elect were her maid of honor Miss Wendy Sellers, her bridesmaid Miss Margaret Sprague, sister of the groom, the bride's mother, Mrs. A. A. McRae, the groom's mother Mrs. E. Sprague of Ladner and the groom's paternal grandmother Mrs. S. Sprague of Arthurette, New Brunswick.

Following a few interesting games Laurie McRae opened her many lovely gifts with the assistance of her attendants. Wendy Sellers created the usual charming chapeau from the many colored bows on the gifts.

The usual sumptuous refreshments followed even to asparagus rolls made with pink bread brought all the way from Toronto. At this time the bride-elect cut the very special cake.

Hostesses for the happy occasion were Miss Wendy Sellers and Mrs. Frank Golay.

Coming events

The last Swap Meet until September, will be held on July 6 in the Fields parking lot from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. This will be sponsored by the Rebel Radio Club.

Found a lump? Don't panic

One of these days you may be casually towelling yourself after bathing and discover you have a lump in one of your breasts.

Unfortunately, a great number of women are panic stricken at this initial discovery.

Fearful of cancer and a radical mastectomy, they carry this secret for months, sometimes years, without discussing it with anyone, even their own doctor.

This is the worst course of action that anyone can take. Because so little is known about the cause of breast cancer and therefore a means of prevention has yet to be discovered, the best hope you have lies in early detection, diagnosis and treatment.

And the sooner the better for you, should you discover you have a lump in your breast. It doesn't mean you have cancer — but you should check as soon as possible with your doctor.

(Pamphlets and information about cancer can be obtained free by writing to B.C. and Yukon Division, Canadian Cancer Society, 1926 West Broadway, Vancouver.)

Will we let Canada lose at its own game?

The pulp and paper industry, and the skilled people who work in it, have always been proud of their products. The sales of these, in Canada and abroad are essential to our economy. In 1974, pulp and paper exports brought almost 4 billion dollars into Canada.

Today, however, others are beating us at our own game. They are developing a competitive edge that is making it more and more difficult for Canada to hold its own in world markets, as well as right here at home.

Why? One of the major — and frankly, touchy — reasons is labour costs.

Canadian pulp and paper workers earn 15% more than American. This fact surprises many people who work for our pulp and paper companies. But fact it is. The average hourly wage in Canadian pulp and paper mills is over 15% higher than in the U.S. and the gap is still widening. This surprising difference has grown up since 1969, even though productivity is generally lower in Canada.

Average Hourly Earnings Pulp and Paper Mills

	October 1969	October 1974	Increase
Canada	$3.66	$6.07	$2.41
United States	$3.67	$5.25	$1.58

Source: Statistics Canada; U.S. Bureau of Labour, Statistics.

These figures are averages. They do not pertain to any one particular job, mill or area. But they do reflect how well Canadian pulp and paper workers have done for themselves in recent years.

There's nothing wrong in that. After all, our economic system is based on ambition and self-improvement. And nobody is suggesting that pulp and paper workers suddenly stop trying to advance themselves. That would be unreasonable and unfair.

But there is a limit. Recent wage settlements in the United States pulp and paper industry amount to approximately a 10% annual increase in each of the next 3 years. Current wage requests in Canada are much higher. If the trend in Canadian settlements since 1969 was to continue, our hourly labour rates would be some 30% higher than those in the U.S. by 1977. That would cripple the industry's ability to grow in its biggest markets, both in Canada and around the world, since there are no offsetting savings in taxation, or in the costs of Canadian wood, transportation, machinery, and materials.

Think for a minute. You don't have to be an expert in world economics to realize that if you can't sell a product, you can't pay people to make it. If customers disappear, so do jobs. That's not a threat — it's a fact of life.

Canadians make good pulp and paper. We've got an enviable combination of traditional skill and modern technology. We have an important natural resource: our forests. We make good products, and we can supply a growing world demand for them. We have a pulp and paper industry with great potential, but only if it can match the toughest competition in the world.

CONTINUED FROM LAST WEEK

Money received from members participating amounted to $9,959. Bright said he felt the centre had been very successful during the season with over $2,400 in the bank, especially considering that the three major hotels, Cheakamus Inn, Christiana Inn and the Ski Boat Hotel, did not participate in the program but operated independently. The balance in the bank would be used for the operation of the small tourist booth during the summer months.

Bright stated that the committee were now working on the possibility of a permanent building to house the centre, close to the highway, for the coming ski season. More definite details on this would be available at a later date. The president passed on the chamber's thanks to Jack Bright in getting the area information centre on its feet last November and having proved it could run as a successful financial endeavour.

On the question of the school site, president Pat Carleton said that we all knew we now had a tremendous site for this, all cleared and levelled, and it was wondered if it would be for the school we had long awaited, or some other commercial development, he did not know, for the school board has been notified of the possible flooding danger in this particular area, and "I'm given to understand that as long as the people are aware of this possibility, the lands department will not stand in the school's way," he said.

However, he added that the frustrations and contradictions were unbelievable. "The chairman of the school board tells us that holes were dug to a four foot depth and would not hold water and Al Raine, when we were in Victoria, tells us that the highways department did test drill holes two feet deep and were drilling in water. Who is telling the truth is beyond me," he said.

To clear the air, Carleton said he had asked Al Raine if he would support the school at the present site. "I asked this question three times and each time Raine said he would support this site and even said the actual school site is the safest part in the entire area," he added. Carleton said that the lease is in for approval and it is up to the department concerned to get around to signing it.

Walter Zebrowski, as chairman of the communications committee, was asked to give a full report on television matters. Zebrowski said that the CRTC had still not made any decision about Channel 10, but this would be announced sometime this month. He also stated that there was a strong possibility of having Channel 2 this coming winter and CBC would be working on final details for this as soon as the show had gone on Sprout where the transmitter is located.

The question of obtaining permanent power had been looked at by CBC. At present this was a problem due to the fact that this could not be relayed on the batteries that are presently used. On initial discussions with CBC, Zebrowski said there was a possibility they would put a station next to our system on Sprout and thus provide power to it. Nothing could be done further on this matter until CBC visited the area and investigated this. If we had the power, Channel 12 could be obtained, and if CRTC made a favorable decision Channel 10 also would be made available to the area.

With regard to the winding up of the TV Society funds, Zebrowski said that the society was sponsored by the chamber in its initial stage of first obtaining television for this area and it made sense that funds be transferred to the chamber bank account in due course. He said that in the meantime the society has to try and recover expenses previously paid from Regional District funds, which represented an amount in excess of $8,000, if the Regional District wished to take over this operation. Therefore, there would be a possibility of the chamber receiving funds from the TV Society in the amount of $10,000.

It was moved at this time that the TV Society fulfill its obligations and forward its annual operating report to Ottawa.

Sorry I didn't manage to get in a report on the Alta Lake Ratepayers' Association meeting but a bout of the flu (and in summer at that) has effectively killed all powers of concentration. Hopefully I shall be able to have one in for next week.

From the Pemberton Valley

by Shirly Henry

High winds in the Pemberton Valley posed a few problems for the Moody family of Pemberton recently. While entertaining at a dinner party, a strong wind blew a power pole and transformer through their kitchen window which landed on the table. Fortunately, only a few minor cuts were received by one guest and a table received glass marks.

Sorry to hear about Mrs. Freida Mitchell who broke her leg this past weekend. Hope it heals quickly, Freida!

Residents of Pemberton who took part in a Sharing Service held at St. David's United Church on Sunday, June 22, donated a total of $1,207.49 which will be sent to the World Development, Service and Relief Fund. Rev. D. Wong conducted the service, which was his last one in the Pemberton area, as he and his family will be leaving for Ashcroft where Rev. Wong will be the new minister of the Zion United Church.

Sunday and Thursday school children were presented with small presentations during the morning service.

Soloists for the service were Barbara Guthrie and Dave Walden. Following the service, there was a delicious meal of rice and sweet and sour pork prepared by Mrs. Wong. To continue with the theme of Sharing Sunday, a family afternoon of games and supper was held at the Guthries.

For anyone interested; on Sunday, June 29 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. (weather permitting) scenic helicopter flights of Pemberton will be available from Talbot's place; at $10 per person. For reservations and information, please phone 894-6247.
