Elton Eby honored at retirement dinner

Elton Eby, a millwright with Pacific Mills in Squamish, was honored at a retirement dinner held at the Anglers' Club in the town on May 24. The dinner, which was attended by many of his former coworkers and friends, was a tribute to Eby's 36 years of service with the company.

Eby, who was born in 1929, began his career with Pacific Mills in 1957. He served as a millwright for more than 30 years, working on various projects throughout the company's history. He was known for his expertise and dedication to his work, and for his ability to work well with others.

At the dinner, Eby was presented with a plaque and a gift of a leather-bound book, both given by his coworkers. He was also presented with a special cake, which was decorated with a special message.

A small speech was also given by T.J. MacDonald, who served as master of ceremonies. MacDonald spoke about Eby's many accomplishments and his contributions to the company.

Eby's retirement was celebrated by many of his coworkers, who gathered together to enjoy a meal and share stories about their time working with him.

HIGHWAY ACCIDENT

One man was killed and two others were injured in a two-vehicle collision on Highway 99 near Whonnock, according to police.

The accident occurred on Thursday morning, when a Ford Focus collided with a pickup truck on the highway.

The driver of the Focus, a 15-year-old boy, was pronounced dead at the scene. The driver of the pickup, a 45-year-old man, and a passenger, a 53-year-old man, were taken to hospital with injuries.

An investigation is underway to determine the cause of the crash.

MAN KILLED IN HIGHWAY ACCIDENT

John Daniel Jellis, 65, of Squamish, was killed in an accident on Highway 99 on Friday night.

Jellis was driving a motorcycle when he collided with a car on the highway. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

The cause of the accident is under investigation.

A memorial service for Jellis will be held in Squamish on Sunday, May 27.

ILWU back to work

The International Longshore and Warehouse Union (ILWU) has reached a new agreement with the Canadian National Railway Company (CN) to end a six-month strike.

Under the new agreement, which is effective for two years, ILWU members will receive a 2.5% wage increase and improvements in benefits.

The agreement also includes provisions for the renewal of the labour contract in 2021.

Four Guides earn Canada Cords

Four Guides from the Brackendale Girl Guides earned Canada Cords on June 1, 2019.

The ceremony was held at the Southside Community Centre in Squamish, and was attended by the Guides, their families, and friends.

The Guides were presented with their cords by the Guides' chief commissioner, who praised them for their hard work and dedication.

The ceremony also featured a presentation by the Guides' chief commissioner, who spoke about the importance of Guide programs and the Guides' contributions to the community.

The Guides were also presented with certificates of appreciation from the Guides' chief commissioner.

Highway opening to be delayed till end of June

The opening of the new highway on Highway 99 has been delayed until the end of June.

The highway, which is a $1.2 billion project, was originally scheduled to open in late May.

The opening has been delayed due to concerns about the safety of the children crossing the road.

The highway will be closed to traffic during the school term, and the district has requested that the opening be delayed until after the school term.

The closure is expected to be for a period of 10 months.

Four Teachers, a trustee, a custodian, and a maintenance worker were honored at a farewell dinner held at the school board in Squamish.

At the dinner, the teachers and custodian were presented with plaques and gifts, and the maintenance worker was presented with a cake.

Hospital meeting

Considerable time spent was devoted to reports of committees of the hospital. This is the first time that has been done by the board. It was emphasized that medical staff in reviewing the reports of the committees, will make a thorough study of them and that the executive committee take a broad view of the entire matter. It was pointed out that the staff must keep this in mind in the future. The reports of the various committees will be put together and a list of the important matters will be made up. The reports will also be considered in a general meeting of the staff. The reports were then submitted to the committee for a general meeting of the hospital.

BOMB SCARE ON ROYAL HUDSON TRAIN

A bomb threat on the Royal Hudson, Saturday, June 9, caused the train to arrive about 20 minutes late in Squamish. There were no threats made before the train left, said Hugh Armstrong, public relations manager for British Columbia Railways. "The BCR went along with the RCMP and checked it out, but there was no problem," he said.

Look, Eddie, a tourists’s guide

Eddie and Myrtle Novan step off the bus in Squamish, and, as Eddie says, "We come here every time we visit Squamish. Certainly, other pamphlets and services available in tourist offices, but the Novans picked up a flyer labeled as a "guide" why bother another one?"

Most Squamish citizens are under the impression that the Ministry of Tourism considers the Royal Hudson to be one of its top projects. Also, Britannia Beach has the only operating ferry available, a restaurant facility in the entire province. We're disappointed. One small paragraph in the brochure, "the Royal Hudson, and Britannia Beach could have been included.

Tourist B.C. says the events were only a random selection, but we've not sure that everyone will remember the paragraph which states this, or that they'll have time enough for a complete one. People who read the brochure, Myrtle Novan will catch Squamish the next time they visit. We hope so.

Graduates face cloudy future

June is traditionally the month for words about the end of the school year, and for words about the growth of our young. But it's also the month for words about the long-term prospects facing those who left school to enter the working world.

For them, for some, those who have skills which are in great demand, will have no trouble finding jobs, but those who have selected careers in areas where there is a glut of applicants, may find the going a lit bit difficult.

For those who are going into the business world, it's about the time most of the graduating classes were graduating. So, the students who told of the members of the year's graduating class that many firms have good training programs to prepare their people for jobs within the company, or who were employed with firms that their graduates would be wise to do. But other students were concerned whether he could get as his education or working experience, and a word about their plans.

Experts have indicated that the average physician entering the working world today must be prepared to be at least twice as well trained as was this generation forty years ago.

November covered shelter needed

Recently a planned picnic for the group of students at Alice Lake had to be cancelled because there is no covered area where such a gathering could be held. This has occurred several times in the past five years, and the lack of planning, 4-H club leaders are disturbed. The covered area is one of those which the young people have been so easily grown in ease of rain or sun. All that is required is a roof with strong supports and either a solid wall or a特价 support to open areas or open in at the centre where a fire could be built. It would have been easy to install something permanent, such as a building project for groups like Scouts, Guides or 4-H clubs, and it would be of great use to our members, many of whom have to find another location within a few years. I was talking to a group of these in this month in the rapid changes which are coming each month, so job or permit can be secured for the next thirty years.

It's striking time again

The SLUW strike ended after 10 days of all work. Furthermore, it was quite a surprise that they could manage to hold out against a possible work stoppage for so long. About 500 families in Squamish got the news from the mailman, and this is a first for most of Squamish. In the same industry, other workers may find the strain on them could mean hundreds for much more.

The Squamish Times "Wednesday, June 26, 1974 - Page 6"
There was some interesting variation of both to be seen, but the Canada Geese, Snow Geese and wild flocks appeared to dominate. Many of the species were talking and the birds were thrilled to observe that one of the "neighbours" had brought along refreshments for the ducks and geese and was delighting us with our interest. Some of the moments were out of bounds because of the incoming tide, but we heard a wonderful Trumpeter Swan take to our foghorn! It was a delight to watch the members of our group gliding their rowboat smoothly and gracefully to the shore.

Near the site we witnessed the departure of the birds with much hopping of legs, waving of wings and swimming about. All the foods enjoyed being handed but by their nature and were eaten freely.

After a more enjoyable and interesting afternoon another little cruise was made with a view to the Park and nearby fields. There we enjoyed a hearty picnic and natural happenings by our return. Another delightful day to be enjoyed.

The Chieftain Hotel and everyone is acknowledged for the wonderful enthusiasm and imaginative programme and many happy times together. Fun at camp. The pack thanks Mrs. Brede Bennett and her helpers for her help at the camp and for aiding the CHF. Also Mrs. Kathy Davis and Mr. Gledhill and all people for their help. On the whole and for the weekend of May 25. 1978-79 a happy time for the kids.

GUIDERS DONATE $1012.75 TOWARDS PURCHASE OF FETAL HEART MONITOR

Guiders donate $1012.75 towards purchase of fetal heart monitor

The Catholic Women's League of St. John's Anglican Church in Squamish have been working hard towards the purchase of a fetal heart monitor. The monitor will be used at Camp Olive for the benefit of expectant mothers and their babies. The monitor is a vital piece of equipment that allows healthcare professionals to monitor the health of both the mother and the baby during labor and delivery. The monitor is particularly useful for mums-to-be with medical complications or for those who require close monitoring during pregnancy.

The monitor was purchased with the help of a generous donation from the Squamish Community Council, which has contributed $1012.75 towards its purchase. The council has been instrumental in supporting community projects and initiatives, and this donation is a testament to their commitment to improving the quality of life for Squamish residents.

The monitor will be used at Camp Olive, a summer camp for children and youth, which is run by the Catholic Women's League. The camp is a place of safety and support for children who may be experiencing difficulty at home or in their communities. The camp provides a nurturing environment where children can develop their skills and build their confidence.

The Catholic Women's League is grateful to the Squamish Community Council for their support and to all those who have contributed to the purchase of the monitor. The league is committed to continuing to provide high-quality care and support to those in need, and this monitor will play a vital role in achieving this goal.

Dive Club
News
By Delia Murphy

A meeting of the Squamish Dive Club was held at the Club's annual general meeting, attended by many and many other people were present.

The Squamish Aquatic Club was first held in June 1975 in Squamish. Since then, there have been many and many more people who have joined the Club. A thorough cleaning was made of the pool during the summer season, especially after the4th of July. On that day, it was one of the most successful events ever held. The swimming club swims every few days and those who are interested in learning competitive swimming, stroke correction and improvement, are welcome to join. The school plans on starting the swim club next Monday through Friday. The swim club is open to all members of the community, and those who are interested in learning more about swimming are welcome to join.

The swim club holds a meeting every few weeks and those who are interested in learning more about swimming are welcome to join.

Dive Club News is now in circulation. The next issue will be released in July. The Club is always looking for new members and those who are interested in learning more about swimming are welcome to join.

Know your safety tips

With so much winter weather out there, safety is a must. Here are some tips to help you stay safe:

1. Make sure your home is properly insulated.
2. Keep your carbon monoxide detector in working order.
3. Be careful when using space heaters.
4. Keep flammable materials away from heat sources.
5. Stay alert for signs of carbon monoxide poisoning.
6. Stay away from open flames.
7. If you suspect carbon monoxide poisoning, get fresh air and call emergency services.

SQUAMISH ELEMENTARY STUDENTS VISIT VICTORIA

Students from Karen Mount and Deborah Brook's class at Squamish Elementary School visited Victoria June 16 for a one-day visit. The students had lunch in Beacon Hill Park, and a tour of the provincial museum and the Legislative Assembly buildings.

While touring the legislative buildings, the students met Allison Winning, MLA for Nanaimo-Qualicum, who took them on a tour of the building. Allison Winning is the MLA for Nanaimo-Qualicum and the official Opposition critic for Education. The students were able to learn about the role of a MLA and the different aspects of government.

In the evening, the students visited the Royal Bank of Canada in Victoria and met with Bank staff to learn about banking and financial literacy.

The visit provided the students with a unique opportunity to explore the world of government and learn about the role of a MLA in representing their community. The students were able to ask questions and gain a better understanding of the legislative process and the role of government in our society.

...and visit you in our new branch.

The new branch is located at 300-5104 Victoria Street, and it is open from 9 am to 5 pm on weekdays. The branch is equipped with the latest technology and offers a wide range of financial services to meet the needs of all our customers.

The branch is also a hub for community activities and events, and we are excited to be able to provide a space for the local community to come together and connect.

We are committed to supporting the local community and provide financial education workshops and seminars on various topics, such as budgeting, saving, and investing.

In addition, the new branch has a dedicated area for children, which includes comfortable seating, a children's reading corner, and a variety of puzzles and games to keep the little ones entertained while parents wait to be served.

Artworks by local artists will also be prominently displayed throughout the branch, showcasing the diverse and vibrant creative community in Victoria.

We look forward to welcoming you to our new branch and providing you with the best possible service.

First flop of Civic Centre year

The Civic Centre celebrated its first flop of the season Friday night.

An estimated 500 people attended the event, which featured a live band, food trucks, and games. The evening was a great success, with many attendees expressing their excitement for the upcoming Civic Centre events.

More events are planned throughout the year, including concerts, markets, and social gatherings. For more information on upcoming events, visit the Civic Centre's website or follow them on social media.

Handsworth band at Signal Hill

The Handsworth band performed a live concert at Signal Hill on Saturday night. The event was a huge success, with a large crowd of people enjoying the music and performances.

The Handsworth band is a local group of talented musicians who have been performing for several years. They perform a diverse range of music, including classic rock, pop, and country.

The band provided an amazing performance, with theirhigh energy and engaging stage presence captivat- ing the audience. The audience was on their feet, dancing and singing along to the music.

The Handsworth band will be performing at several other events throughout the year, so be sure to check their schedule and catch them live.

At the arts council meeting, the council approved a $5,000 grant to the local arts group, which will be used to support their upcoming projects and events. The council is committed to promoting and supporting the arts in our community, and we are proud to be able to provide this funding.

The council also approved a new initiative to provide mentorship for young artists, which will be launched later this year. The initiative aims to support young artists in their creative pursuits and provide them with valuable guidance and resources.

The council also discussed the possibility of hosting an annual arts festival in our area, which would provide an opportunity for artists to showcase their work and connect with the community.

The council will continue to work towards promoting and supporting the arts in our community. We are committed to fostering a vibrant and creative community, and we look forward to seeing the positive impact of these initiatives.

Pemberton Secondary Schools Awards Day

Susan Zurcher and Anthony Bekts take top honors

BY EDITH BILES

The girls of Mount Currie were beautifully decorated for the graduation ceremonies of TSzI grads. At the end of the day a group of students all dressed in black smiling and laughing. The girls were beautiful and their dresses were stunning. The tables were beautifully arranged with flowers, candles, and other items. The banquet was held at the Pemberton Secondary School and students were seated at tables.

The Goldbridge students left their homes at approximately 6:30 a.m. and arrived at the school around 7:30 a.m.

After the breakfast, the graduates proceeded to the main hall where they were seated in alphabetical order. The students were given their awards and certificates.

The ceremony ended with a prayer for the graduates and their families. Graduates from the two schools were presented with their diplomas and certificates.

The ceremony was followed by a dance at 7:30 p.m. at the Pemberton Secondary School.
